SCOTTISH LEAGUE HONOURS 1890–2019

-Until 1921-22 season teams were equal if level on points, unless a play-off took place. §Not promoted after play-offs. ^Won or placed on goal average (ratio), goal difference or most goals scored (goal average from 1921-22 until 1971-72 when it was replaced by goal difference). No official competition during 1939-46; regional leagues operated.

SCOTTISH LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP WINS

Rangers 54, Celtic 50, Aberdeen 4, Hearts 4, Hibernian 4, Dumbarton 2, Dundee 1, Dundee U 1, Kilmarnock 1, Motherwell 1, Third Lanark 1.

The totals for Rangers and Dumbarton each include the shared championship of 1890–91.

Since the formation of the Scottish Football League in 1890, there have been periodic reorganisations of the leagues to allow for expansion, improve competition and commercial aspects of the game. The table below lists the league names by tier and chronology. This table can be used to assist when studying the records.

Tier	Division
1	Scottish League Division I	1890–1939
	Scottish League Division A	1946–1956
	Scottish League Division I	1956–1975
	Premier Division	1975–1998
	Scottish Premier League	1998–2013
	SPFL Premiership	2013–
2	Scottish League Division II	1893–1939
	Scottish League Division B	1946–1956
	Scottish League Division II	1956–1975
	First Division	1975–2013
	SPFL Championship	2013–
3	Scottish League Division III	1923–1926
	Scottish League Division C	1946–1949
	Second Division	1975–2013
	SPFL League One	2013–
4	Third Division	1994–2013
	SPFL League Two	2013–

In 2013–14 the SPFL introduced play-offs to determine a second promotion/relegation place for the Premiership, Championship and League One.

The team finishing second bottom of the Premiership plays two legs against the team from the Championship that won the eliminator games played between the teams finishing second, third and fourth.

For both the Championship and League One, the team finishing second bottom joins the teams from second, third and fourth places of the lower league in a play-off series of two-legged semi-finals and finals.

In 2014–15 a play-off was introduced for promotion/relegation from League Two. The team finishing bottom of League Two plays two legs against the victors of the eliminator games between the winners of the Highland and Lowland leagues.

INTERNATIONAL DIRECTORY

The directory provides the latest available information on international and club football in the 211 national associations in the six Confederations of FIFA, the world governing body. This includes addresses, foundation dates and team colours. FIFA-recognised internationals played in season 2018–19 (i.e. 16 July 2018 to 14 July 2019) are listed as well as league and cup champions at club level. In Europe, the latest league tables, cup winners and top scorers for the 55 UEFA nations are given, together with all-time league and cup honours. (Key to table symbols used: * team relegated, *+ team relegated after play-offs, + team not relegated after play-offs.)

The four home nations, England, Scotland, Northern Ireland and Wales, are dealt with elsewhere in the Yearbook; but basic details appear in this directory. Gozo is included here for its close links with Maltese football. Northern Cyprus is not a member of FIFA or UEFA and is the subject of an international territorial dispute. Kosovo was granted full membership of both FIFA and UEFA in May 2016 and entered World Cup 2018 qualification in September 2016 followed by participation in the 2018–19 UEFA Nations League and Euro 2020 qualifying. FYR Macedonia's results are now credited to North Macedonia, its new name from February 2019. Swaziland was renamed Eswatini in April 2018.

There are currently 12 associate members and others who have affiliation to their confederations. The associate members are: AFC: Northern Mariana Islands; CAF: Reunion, Zanzibar; CONCACAF: Bonaire, French Guiana, Guadeloupe, Martinique, Saint-Martin, Sint Maarten; OFC: Kiribati, Niue, Tuvalu. Matches between full members and associate members are indicated with †.

FOOTBALL CLUB CHAPLAINCY

Brian was already in his thirties when he was ordained, but there weren't many – or even any! – other clergymen who had played in a major cup final.

During an afternoon visiting the local hospital, Brian met a colleague who had been a football chaplain for many years prior to moving to his current appointment. The pair soon became firm friends and it was at the latter's suggestion that Brian applied to a nearby club that was among the minority of league clubs which had never benefited from a chaplain's ministry.

The club secretary, a sidesman at his local church, encouraged his Chairman to consider the matter, and after several meetings, the directors appointed Brian to serve as chaplain of their club.

Naturally, many of the playing staff were intrigued by Brian's pedigree and, occasionally, by invitation, he would take part in a morning's training and travel with the team when it was convenient. Of course, the highlight for Brian was the occasion when 'his' new club met his former one – but wild horses would never goad Brian to reveal which team he supported that afternoon!

OBITUARIES

Ian Allen (Born: Johnstone, Renfrewshire, 27 January 1932. Died: 11 November 2018.) Ian Allen was a winger who developed in Ayrshire Junior football with Beith. He attracted attention from senior clubs and shortly after trialling with Aberdeen A he signed for Queens Park Rangers in September 1952. He made just one first-team appearance during a two-year stay at Loftus Road but fared better after moving on to Bournemouth. He played 60 first-team games for the Cherries, scoring 12 goals, before switching to non-league football with Salisbury City.

Stan Anderson (Born: Horden, Co. Durham, 27 February 1934. Died: Doncaster, 10 June 2018.) Stan Anderson was a former England Schools international who went on to sign amateur forms for Sunderland in June 1949, turning professional on reaching the age of 17. He established himself in the side at right-half during the 1953–54 season and went on to make over 400 first-team appearances for the Black Cats. He won representative honours for England U23 and B teams and two full caps, both in April 1962. Later he had a short spell with Newcastle United, assisting them to win promotion to the top flight in 1964–65 before concluding his career as player-coach of Middlesbrough where he was appointed manager in April 1966. He went on to manage AEK Athens, Doncaster Rovers and Bolton Wanderers.

Tommy Anderson (Born: Haddington, East Lothian, 4 September 1933. Died: New South Wales, Australia, 1 July 2018.) Tommy Anderson was a pacy winger who was playing first-team football for Berwick Rangers in Scotland's C Division at the age of 17. His early career was interrupted by National Service in the RAF and although he rejoined the club on demobilisation he was released in the summer of 1955. He subsequently signed for Queen of the South, embarking on a lengthy and peripatetic career in British football which continued until 1967 and saw him make senior appearances for a total of 14 different clubs, rarely staying more than 12 months anywhere. His most successful spell was with Stockport County (June 1960 to November 1961) where he scored 21 goals in 69 appearances.

Dave Andrews (Born: 14 January 1939. Died: 2 November 2018.) Dave Andrews was a prominent amateur player throughout the 1960s, winning the FA Amateur Cup with Walthamstow Avenue (1961) and Leytonstone (1968) and gaining caps for England Amateurs and the Great Britain Olympic team. He later became manager and then chairman of Leytonstone and led them through a series of mergers which resulted in the formation of Dagenham and Redbridge in 1992. He became joint chairman on the club's formation and continued as chairman through to November 2013 when he stepped down and was appointed Life President, a position he held at the time of his death.

Phil Aston (Born: Measham, 13 May 1924. Died: November 2018.) After wartime service in the RAF Phil Aston turned out for Measham Imperial in the Leicestershire Senior League. His performances at right-half soon drew wider attention and in January 1950 he made an appearance for Leicester City in a friendly against Luton Town. The following season he gained three caps for England Amateurs, then after a brief spell with Rugby Town he signed for Walsall. He made 10 Football League appearances for the Saddlers then returned to non-league football with Rugby, Bedworth and Burton Albion.

Kevin Austin (Born: Hackney, 12 February 1973. Died: 28 November 2018.) Kevin Austin was a powerful defender who had a good sense of position and read the game well. After joining Leyton Orient from Saffron Walden Town in August 1993 he went on to make more than 500 senior appearances in a career that spanned the period to 2010 and saw him also play for Lincoln City, Barnsley, Cambridge United, Bristol Rovers, Swansea City and Chesterfield. He was an ever-present for the Imps team that won promotion from Division Three in 1997–98 and won two promotions with Swansea (2004–05 and 2007–08). He was also capped for Trinidad & Tobago. When his playing career was over he went into coaching, most recently with Scunthorpe United. His early death was as a result of pancreatic cancer.

Bobby Ayre (Born: Berwick on Tweed, 26 March 1932. Died: 31 July 2018.) As a youngster Bobby Ayre was 'capped' by the England Army Cadet Force team and was on the books of Newcastle United as an amateur before signing professional terms for Charlton Athletic in the summer of 1950. He scored in his second appearance for the Addicks and found the net regularly during a six-year stay at The Valley, when he won England U23 honours and toured South Africa with an FA squad in the 1956 close season. He later spent two seasons at Reading, taking his record in senior football to an impressive 80 goals from 178 appearances.

Allan Ball (Born: Hetton-le-Hole, Co. Durham, 26 February 1943. Died: Dumfries, 21 July 2018.) Goalkeeper Allan Ball was a product of County Durham schools football and went on to sign for Queen of the South during the 1963–64 season. He went straight into the line-up and never looked back, staying until the end of the 1981–82 season. His totals of 725 League and Cup appearances and 507 consecutive first-team appearances are both club records. A genuine legend in the club's history, he enjoyed two testimonial matches for Queens and later played briefly for Gretna and Dalbeattie Star before retiring from the game.

Mike Balson (Born: Bridport, Dorset, 9 September 1947. Died: Florida, USA, 30 May 2019.) Mike Balson joined Exeter City as a forward but was quickly converted to defence, initially at left-back and then at left half. He had six seasons as a regular at St James Park and in total made 305 first-team appearances before moving to South Africa to play for Highlands Park in 1974. After returning to the UK he emigrated to the USA in 1979 where he played in the NASL for Atlanta Chiefs and for a number of indoor teams. He later became a referee and administrator of the game.

Gordon Banks OBE (Born: Sheffield, 30 December 1937. Died: 12 February 2019.) Gordon Banks is justifiably the greatest goalkeeper English football has produced. A World Cup winner in 1966, his tremendous save from Pele in the 1970 World Cup finals is widely regarded as the greatest save in football history. He began his professional career with Chesterfield, where he featured in the team defeated by Manchester United in the 1956 FA Youth Cup final. Soon after establishing himself in the Spireites' first team he was sold to Leicester City. He appeared in two losing FA Cup finals and was a Football League Cup winner in 1963–64 during his time at Filbert Street before being surprisingly sold to Stoke City in April 1967. Manager Tony Waddington assembled a squad of great experience and Gordon went on to be part of the team that won the League Cup in 1972, the club's first-ever major trophy. The following October he lost an eye in a road traffic accident and this effectively ended his career in top-class football. He was, however, best known for his exploits in international rather than club football, winning 73 caps between 1963 and 1972. In addition he won a host of personal awards including FIFA Goalkeeper of the Year six times in a row (1966 to 1971) and the Football Writers' Association Footballer of the Year (1972).

Colin Barlow (Born: Manchester, 14 November 1935. Died: December 2018.) Colin Barlow was a pacy outside-right who established himself in the Manchester City team during the 1956–57 campaign after scoring on his debut in a 3–2 win at Chelsea. He stayed at Maine Road until the end of the 1962–63 season, bringing his tally to 80 goals from 189 League and Cup appearances. He later spent time on the books of Oldham Athletic and Doncaster Rovers before becoming a successful businessman and eventually being appointed Manchester City's first chief executive, holding the position between 1994 and 1997.

Mike Barnard (Born: Portsmouth, 18 July 1933. Died: 18 December 2018.) Mike Barnard was a local lad who signed amateur forms for Portsmouth in May 1951. Seven months later he turned professional but it was not until the 1953–54 season that he played regular first-team football for Pompey. An inside-forward, he went on to make over 100 League appearances for the club, all in the top flight, before injury led to a switch in focus to his cricket career. A middle order batsman, he made 285 appearances for Hampshire between 1952 and 1966 and was a member of their team which won the County Championship in 1961.

Ernie Bateman (Born: Hemel Hempstead, 5 April 1929. Died: 10 September 2018.) Ernie Bateman was a tall centre-half who joined Watford from Hemel Hempstead Town in March 1952. He spent five years at Vicarage Road, but it was only in the 1954–55 season that he featured regularly in the side. In only his second appearance he played the whole of the second half in goal after regular 'keeper Fred Bennett broke a finger and went out to play on the wing. Ernie later played for Sittingbourne, captaining their team which won the Kent League in both 1957–58 and 1958–59. His brother Colin also played for Watford in the 1950s.

Kevin Beattie (Born: Carlisle, 18 December 1953. Died: Ipswich, 16 September 2018.) Kevin Beattie was big, powerful central defender who joined Ipswich Town as an apprentice and progressed to a professional contract in the summer of 1971. He won a regular place in Bobby Robson's side in 1972–73 and enjoyed considerable success in a decade at Portman Road. He gained an FA Cup winners' medal in 1978 and was a member of the team that defeated Norwich City to win the Texaco Cup in 1973. In total he played over 300 League and Cup games for Ipswich before injuries effectively ended his career, although there were brief come backs with Colchester United and Middlesbrough. He was the PFA Young Player of the Year in 1973–74 and was capped for England at both U23 and full international levels.

Ted Bennett (Born: Kilburn, 22 August 1925. Died: 23 August 2018.) Goalkeeper Ted Bennett enjoyed a successful amateur career with Southall, winning nine England Amateur caps and also featuring for Great Britain in the 1952 Olympic Games. During this period he also made two appearances for Queens Park Rangers in 1948–49. After helping Southall reach the FA Amateur Cup semi-final in 1952–53 he signed professional forms for Watford in December 1953. He went straight into the Hornets' first team and enjoyed a successful run, missing just one game before being sidelined by a broken finger in September 1955. The following summer he moved on to sign for Gravesend & Northfleet.

Carl Bertelsen (Born: Hadersley, Denmark, 15 November 1937. Died: 11 June 2019.) Carl Bertelsen was a clever forward who developed in Denmark with his hometown club Hadersley BK, winning international honours for his country and featuring in the team that finished in fourth place in the 1964 European Championships. Shortly afterwards he became the latest Scandinavian to sign for Hal Stewart's Morton, helping them reach the League Cup semi-finals in 1964–65. He moved on for spells at Dundee and Kilmarnock where he featured in the team that reached the semi-final of the Inter Cities Fairs Cup in 1966–67. He subsequently returned to Denmark to play for OB Odense.

Tommy Best (Born: Milford Haven, 23 December 1920. Died: Hereford, 16 September 2018.) Tommy Best was stationed in Belfast when serving with the Royal Navy in the Second World War during which time he turned out for Belfast Celtic and Cliftonville, thus becoming the first black player to appear in senior football in Ireland. When peacetime football resumed he signed for Chester at the age of 26 and after impressing during his time at Sealand Road he went on to play for Cardiff City and Queens Park Rangers in Division Two. Generally featuring as a centre- or inside-forward, he eventually moved on to play for Southern League club Hereford United.

Barrie Betts (Born: Barnsley, 18 September 1932. Died: Lytham St Anne's, 10 November 2018.) Barrie Betts was a full-back who developed in local junior football before signing for Barnsley in November 1950. After waiting two years for his senior debut he appeared to be establishing himself when a persistent back injury led to his retirement from the game early in 1957. However, he went on to make a full recovery and signed for Stockport County the following November. His performances for the Hatters earned him a move to Manchester City in the summer of 1960 and he went on to captain the team, making over 100 top-flight appearances before retiring for a second time after a brief spell with Scunthorpe United.

Gordon Black (Born: Linlithgow, West Lothian, 8 July 1931. Died: Livingston, 29 November 2018.) Wing-half Gordon Black was still a teenager when he joined Hibernian from Armadale Thistle in March 1949, but although he spent five seasons at Easter Road he was unable to break into the first team. After moving on to Falkirk in October 1953 he went on to make just under 250 League and Cup appearances during a career which also saw him play for Dundee, St Johnstone and Dumbarton.

Lyall Bolton (Born: Gateshead, 11 July 1932. Died: 8 August 2018.) Lyall Bolton was a tall half-back who signed for Sunderland as a teenager from local team Close House. He went on to make three Football League appearances for the Black Cats in the mid-1950s then moved to Southern League club Chelmsford City where he was a near ever-present in his first two seasons.

Peter Brackley (Born: Brighton, 1951. Died: 14 October 2018.) Peter Brackley was a match commentator and broadcaster who began his career at BBC Radio Brighton before moving to BBC Radio Sport. He subsequently worked for ITV, Channel Four's Football Italia and Sky before returning to ITV in 1992. He was a lifelong Brighton & Hove Albion supporter.

Harold Bratt (Born: Salford, 8 October 1939. Died: 8 October 2018.) Harold Bratt was an England Schools international who went on to sign for Manchester United and was a member of the team that won the FA Youth Cup in 1956–57. His only first-team game for United came in a surprise League Cup defeat by Bradford City in November 1960. He went on to play two seasons as a regular at left-half for Doncaster Rovers before switching to non-league football with Altrincham.

Matt Brazier (Born: Leytonstone, 2 July 1976. Died: February 2019.) Matt Brazier was a trainee with Queens Park Rangers before progressing to the professional ranks in July 1994. Initially a left-sided midfield player he dropped back to play at full-back in the latter stages of his career. He featured for the R's in the Premier League and went on to play for Fulham, Cardiff City and Leyton Orient before retiring in 2004 having made over 200 senior appearances. His early death was due to cancer.

Tony Brimacombe (Born: Plymouth, 6 August 1939. Died: August 2018.) Tony Brimacombe came to prominence with the Loughborough College side that reached the quarter-finals of the FA Amateur Cup in 1960–61 and also won representative honours for the British Universities team. After appearing for Tooting & Mitcham, Kettering Town and Barnet he signed for Plymouth Argyle in December 1965 and he went on to make 16 Football League appearances for the club over the next three seasons.

Ivor Broadis (Born: Poplar, 18 December 1922. Died: 12 April 2019.) Ivor Broadis was a creative, intelligent inside-forward who developed in wartime football, principally with Millwall and Tottenham Hotspur, before being appointed player-manager of Carlisle United in August 1946 at the age of 23. He enjoyed an excellent scoring record during his time at Brunton Park and then transferred himself to Sunderland for a substantial fee during the 1948–49 campaign. For the next eight seasons he played top-flight football with considerable success, also winning 14 England caps and appearing for his country in the 1954 World Cup finals. He returned to Carlisle as player-coach in July 1955 then went on to play for Queen of the South where he remained until April 1962. After his playing career ended he worked as a journalist for the Newcastle Journal and later for the Carlisle Evening News. He was the oldest surviving England international player at the time of his death.

Jim Brogan (Born: Glasgow, 8 June 1944. Died: Glasgow, 24 September 2018.) Jim Brogan was a left-sided defender who was a member of the successful Celtic team of the late 1960s and early 1970s. He won seven consecutive League championships (1967–68 to 1973–74) four Scottish Cups and three Scottish League Cups during his time at Parkhead as well as playing in the 1970 European Cup final. In total he made almost 350 League and Cup appearances for the club and won four full Scotland caps as well as playing for the Scottish League representative side. He was released on a free transfer in the summer of 1975 and moved south to play for Coventry City where he was initially a regular in the line-up before losing his place in the side. He concluded his career with a brief spell at Ayr United.

Tommy Brownlee (Born: Carnwath, Lanarkshire, 21 May 1935. Died: 16 December 2018.) Centre-forward Tommy Brownlee was a prolific scorer in junior football with Broxburn Athletic and while undertaking his National Service, he signed for Walsall. He scored regularly for the Saddlers' reserve team but after a brief spell at York City he moved on to Workington in the summer of 1959, where he again found the net at almost a goal a game for the club's reserves. A spell at Lancashire Combination club Netherfield saw him become their record all-time goalscorer, earning him a brief return to senior football with Bradford City, for whom he finished as top scorer in the 1964–65 season.

Cyril Bunclark (Born: Rotherham, 27 March 1931. Died: 7 July 2018.) Cyril Bunclark was a winger who joined Rotherham United from local football, signing professional forms in November 1953. He was mostly a reserve during his time at Millmoor, making two first-team appearances, scoring within 15 minutes of his debut at Hull. He moved on to Wisbech Town in the summer of 1956.

Goran Bunjevcevic (Born: Karlovac, Yugoslavia, 17 February 1974. Died: Belgrade, Serbia, 28 June 2018.) Goran Bunjevcevic was a central defender and occasional central midfield player who came to prominence playing with Red Star Belgrade. He joined Tottenham Hotspur for a substantial fee in May 2000, but his first season was marred by injury and although he was a regular in 2002–03 he then struggled to break into the team before moving on to ADO Den Haag in the summer of 2006. He won 16 caps for FR Yugoslavia and continued to work in the game, most recently as sporting director of the FA of Serbia.

Ted Burgin (Born: Stannington, Sheffield, 29 April 1927. Died: 26 March 2019.) Goalkeeper Ted Burgin joined Sheffield United from Lincolnshire League club Alford Town in March 1949 and within six months had established himself as the Blades' first-choice keeper. He went on to make over 300 League and Cup appearances during his time at Bramall Lane, where he was an ever-present in the team that won the Division Two title in 1952–53. He came to close to winning full England honours, touring twice with an FA squad (Australia in 1951 and South Africa in 1956), winning two England B caps and being a member of the squad for the 1954 World Cup finals. Later he spent the best part of three years at Leeds United before concluding his senior career at Rochdale, where he added a further 200 appearances and was a member of the team defeated by Norwich City in the 1961–62 League Cup final.

Albert Burnett (Born: Glasgow, 10 October 1958. Died: 21 September 2018.) Albert Burnett played at left-half for Benburb Juniors against Ballieston in the 1980 Scottish Junior Cup final at Hampden, scoring in the drawn first game, with Benburb losing out in the replay. Stepping up to the seniors, he made a single first-team appearance for Airdrieonians at the end of the 1980–81 campaign, then played a further 50 games for Dumbarton before concluding with a season at Falkirk. He later returned to the Juniors with Port Glasgow.

Terry Bush (Born: Ingoldisthorpe, Norfolk, 29 January 1943. Died: 30 July 2018.) Terry Bush was a powerful centre-forward who was on the books of Bristol City as a youngster before signing professional terms in February 1960. He scored twice on his Football League debut for City against Torquay in March 1961 but it was not until the 1964–65 season that he became established in the team. He netted 16 goals that season to help City win promotion from the old Third Division and went on to make a total of 181 first team appearances (45 goals) before injury led to his retirement.

Eric Caldow (Born: Cumnock, 14 May 1934. Died: 4 March 2019.) Eric Caldow was a neat and efficient full-back capable of playing equally well on either flank. He was just 19 when he made his first-team debut for Rangers and spent 14 years on the club's books, making over 400 first-team appearances. He captained both club and country but suffered a broken leg playing for Scotland against England in 1963 and was never quite the same player afterwards. In his time at Ibrox he won five Scottish League titles, the Scottish Cup on two occasions and the League Cup three times. He captained the team defeated by Fiorentina in the 1960–61 European Cup Winners' Cup final. He later had a season with Stirling Albion before leaving senior football. He was also a member of the Ibrox Hall of Fame.

Bobby Campbell (Born: 13 August 1941. Died: 7 March 2019.) Bobby Campbell progressed from Ayrshire Junior football with Ardeer Recreation to St Mirren in August 1959, beginning a decade of senior football. Initially an inside-forward, he was a member of the successful Morton team of 1963–64 which won the Second Division title and also reached the League Cup final. However, at the end of the following season he followed manager Bobby Howitt to Motherwell where he was to spend six years. He bagged all five goals in a win over St Mirren in September 1966 and after dropping back to play in a more defensive role he was an ever-present in the team that won Division Two in 1968–69. Later he concluded his career with a season at Stranraer.

Len Campbell (Born: Old Kilpatrick, Dunbartonshire, 23 December 1946. Died: November 2018.) Len Campbell was a wing-half who developed in Junior football with Yoker Athletic before stepping up to the seniors with Dumbarton in November 1968. He became a regular in the line-up through to the end of the 1969–70 season before eventually reverting to Junior status and rejoining Yoker.

Tom Cargill (Born: 15 December 1944. Died: Dundee, 10 May 2019.) Half-back Tom Cargill joined Dundee from Arbroath Lads Club as a 17-year-old but failed to make the first team at Dens Park. After a successful spell on loan he made a permanent move to Arbroath in the summer of 1966 and over the next 15 years became a mainstay in the side, establishing a club record of 445 Scottish League appearances. He was inducted into the Arbroath FC Hall of Fame in 2015.

Joe Carolan (Born: Dublin, 8 September 1937. Died: September 2018.) Joe Carolan signed for Manchester United as a wing-half from Home Farm in February 1956 and later that season was a member of the United team that went on to defeat Chesterfield to win the FA Youth Cup. By November 1958, when he made his senior debut, he had switched to left-back and he went on to enjoy an 18-month run in the United line-up, also gaining two caps for the Republic of Ireland. In December 1960 he moved on to Brighton & Hove Albion then went on to a lengthy career in Southern League football, notably with Tonbridge.

Terry Casey (Born: Llanrwst, Denbighshire, 1937. Died: 19 February 2018.) Terry Casey was a half-back who captained Barnet to successive Athenian League titles in 1963–64 and 1964–65. He went on to win 10 amateur international caps for Wales. He later worked for the Football Association, the FA of Wales (director of coaching & development) and FIFA (technical director).

Steve Chalmers (Born: Glasgow, 26 December 1935. Died: 29 April 2019.) Steve Chalmers achieved immortal fame when he scored Celtic's decisive goal five minutes from time in the 1967 European Cup final win over Inter Milan, the first time a British club had won the trophy. A product of Junior football (he had been capped for the Juniors against Ireland in 1959), he enjoyed a fine career as a member of Celtic's all conquering team of the late 1960s, winning four Scottish League titles, three Scottish Cups and the League Cup on four occasions. A fractured ankle suffered against St Johnstone in the League Cup final in October 1969 effectively ended his career at Parkhead although he later had spells with Morton (as player-coach) and Partick Thistle before leaving senior football. He won five caps for Scotland and also won representative honours for the Scottish League.

Stan Clements obe (Born: Portsmouth, 25 June 1923. Died: 8 November 2018.) Stan Clements was a powerful centre-half who played wartime football for both Portsmouth and Southampton. He signed up for Saints in July 1944 but was mostly on the fringes of the first team until the 1951–52 season when he began to feature more regularly and had a spell as captain of the side. He moved on to Basingstoke in the summer of 1955 and later worked as a civil engineer, mostly in Africa, at one point coaching the Kenya national side. He was Southampton's oldest surviving Football League player at the time of his death aged 95.

Jimmy Coates (Born: 16 October 1929. Died: 26 April 2019.) Jimmy Coates was a forward who enjoyed a lengthy career in amateur football and won representative honours for the Royal Navy and England Amateurs, as well as being a member of the Great Britain squad for the 1956 Olympic Games. He was best known in club football for his time at Kingstonian for whom he was a member of the team that was defeated by Hendon in the 1960 FA Amateur Cup final. He later coached the Combined Services team.

Colin Collindridge (Born: Barugh Green, Barnsley, 15 November 1920. Died: April 2019.) Colin Collindridge was a tricky winger who had been on the books of Rotherham United as an amateur before the war. He signed for Sheffield United in January 1939 and went on to make over 70 wartime appearances for the Blades as well as guesting for a number of other clubs, notably Notts County. He was a regular in the line-up at Bramall Lane in the first four post-war seasons and on moving to Nottingham Forest in August 1950 he was an ever-present as the club won the Division Three South title in his first season with them. He ended his senior career with two seasons at Coventry City, finishing with career totals of 111 goals from 343 peacetime appearances.

Jimmy Collins (Born: Sorn, Ayrshire, 21 December 1937. Died: July 2018.) Jimmy Collins was something of a star in Scottish Junior football as a teenager, gaining two Junior caps and featuring for Lugar Boswell Thistle when they lost out in the 1956 Junior Cup final. He signed for Tottenham Hotspur shortly afterwards but in a six-year stay at White Hart Lane he made just two appearances before moving on to Brighton & Hove Albion in October 1962. He was a regular for the Seagulls for five seasons, making over 200 appearances and playing a key role in the team that won the Fourth Division title in 1964–65. Later he enjoyed a lengthy spell with Southern League club Wimbledon.

Jimmy Copeland (Born: Kirkconnel, Dumfries & Galloway, 23 August 1941. Died: 22 July 2018.) Forward Jimmy Copeland made his senior debut for Kilmarnock at the age of 17. However, his early career was restricted by a broken leg and although he went on to play for Dumbarton, Montrose and Clyde he was unable to gain regular first-team football. He subsequently spent two years in South Africa with Highlands Park then a further 15 years in Bermuda. He played for a Bermuda representative side against a number of touring teams including Coventry City, Tottenham Hotspur and Celtic.

Charlie Crickmore (Born: Hull, 11 February 1942. Died: Hessle, East Riding, 13 October 2018.) Charlie Crickmore was a traditional-style outside-left, quick and with the ability to cross the ball from the flanks into the penalty area. In a career spanning the period from 1959 to 1972 he scored 64 goals from 357 Football League appearances. Starting out with his hometown club Hull City, he played in turn for Bournemouth, Gillingham, Rotherham United (briefly under manager Tommy Docherty), Rotherham United, Norwich City and Notts County. The high point of his career came in his penultimate season of senior football when he was an ever-present in the Notts County team that won the Division Four title in 1970–71.

Bob Crookes (Born: Retford, 29 February 1924. Died: 20 June 2018.) Bob Crookes had a trial for Lincoln City reserves in May 1949, featuring in a Midland League game against Notts County, but then signed forms for the Magpies. He spent seven years as a part-time professional at Meadow Lane, making 185 first-team appearances and finishing the 1951–52 season as the club's top scorer. He later played in the Midland League for Worksop Town and Grantham.

Allan Crowshaw (Born: Bloxwich, 12 December 1932. Died: 3 November 2018.) Allan Crowshaw was a tall, direct winger who signed for West Bromwich Albion at the age of 17. After completing his National Service he progressed through the Albion junior and reserve teams to make his first-team debut during the 1954–55 season. Unable to win a regular place for the Baggies, he spent two seasons at Derby County, where he contributed to the 1956–57 promotion campaign and a further two at Millwall. However, it was only during the 1958–59 season that he played regular first-team football. He later played for Sittingbourne and Dartford, becoming a Vice-President of Sittingbourne, and from 2006 until his death he was club President.

John Curran (Born: 21 May 1940. Died: 24 June 2018.) John Curran was a tall defender who developed with Drumchapel Amateurs and, briefly, Duntocher Hibs prior to signing for Celtic in November 1958. Although principally a reserve in four seasons at Parkhead, he made four first-team appearances during his stay. After spending the 1962–63 campaign with Irish League club Derry City, he was reinstated as a Junior and signed for Maryhill Harp.

Tom Darling (Born: Newbattle, Midlothian, 29 April 1927. Died: Edinburgh, 31 July 2018.) Tom Darling was a solid full-back who won two Junior caps for Scotland in May 1948 while with Dalkeith Thistle. He moved into the seniors with Heart of Midlothian soon afterwards and made his first-team debut at Motherwell in September 1948. However, he managed just three more appearances during his spell at Tynecastle and in the summer of 1952 moved on to Cowdenbeath. In two seasons at Central Park he made a total of 50 first-team appearances before eventually returning to the Juniors with Newtongrange Star.

George Darwin (Born: Chester-le-Street, 16 May 1932. Died: 2019.) Inside-forward George Darwin joined Huddersfield Town from Kimblesworth Juniors at the age of 18, but in three seasons at Leeds Road he was unable to break into the first team. In November 1953 he signed for Mansfield Town and quickly earned a reputation as a tricky forward with an excellent scoring record, gaining representative honours for Division Three North and against their Southern counterparts and scoring 63 goals from 126 League outings. In the summer of 1957 he was sold to Second Division Derby County where he continued in similar vein before concluding his career with spells at Rotherham United and Barrow.

Dennis Davidson (Born: Aberdeen, 18 May 1937. Died: 26 January 2019.) A product of Aberdeen Juvenile club Torry Rangers, wing-half Dennis Davidson joined the groundstaff at Portsmouth early in 1954, signing professional forms when he reached the age of 17. Dennis spent seven seasons at Fratton Park, mostly playing in the reserve and junior teams. His single Football League appearance came in a 6-1 defeat at Charlton Athletic in the final game of the 1959–60 when he was one of three Pompey players making their senior debut.

Ray Davies (Born: Wallasey, 3 October 1931. Died: March 2019.) Ray Davies joined Tranmere Rovers in October 1949 from local junior football. Initially a centre-forward, he had switched to playing on the right wing by the time he made his first-team debut in September 1951. He enjoyed two good seasons at Prenton Park but then began a period of National Service when he was stationed with the Army in Germany. It was not until August 1955 that he was demobbed and by this time Rovers had a new manager and he became a fringe player before moving on to New Brighton in the summer of 1958.

Harold Davis (Born: Cupar, Fife, 10 May 1933. Died: 26 June 2018.) Harold Davis attracted plenty of attention from senior clubs as centre-forward with Newburgh Juniors but chose to sign professional forms for East Fife in January 1952. Shortly afterwards he was called up for National Service and was posted to Korea where he was badly wounded. He required intensive rehabilitation over two years but recovered full fitness and in October 1956 he signed for Rangers, linking up again with former Bayview manager Scott Symon. Now converted to a role at half-back, he showed great strength and pace in his new role and enjoyed considerable success during his time at Ibrox, winning four Scottish League titles, the Scottish Cup twice and the League Cup once as well as appearing in both legs of the 1960–61 European Cup Winners' Cup final when Rangers lost out to Fiorentina. He was later coach of Queen's Park (August 1965 to November 1969) and manager of Queen of the South (June to December 1970). He was also a member of the Ibrox Hall of Fame.

Joe Davis (Born: Bristol, 24 August 1938. Died: Bristol, 26 November 2018.) Joe Davis signed professional forms for Bristol Rovers as a 17-year-old but had to wait almost five years before he was called up for first-team duties. He went on to make over 200 League and Cup appearances for the Pirates, initially playing at centre-half before switching to left-back. He was Rovers' Player of the Year in 1964–65 and was the first substitute used by the club when he came on against Walsall in October 1965. He finished off with a brief spell at Swansea Town before injury ended his career.

John Dempsey (Born: Birkenhead, 2 April 1951. Died: 2018.) John Dempsey enjoyed a fine start to his career, featuring for Tranmere Rovers reserves at the age of 16 and making his Football League debut at 17, having already trialled for the England Youth team. A left-back, he signed professional forms on reaching his 18th birthday but although he went on to make a total of 65 senior appearances for Rovers he was rarely a regular in the line-up. In the summer of 1972 he signed for Northern Premier League club Ellesmere Port Town.

Peter Dolby (Born: Derby, 18 May 1940. Died: 28 February 2019.) Peter Dolby was a centre-half who played his early football with Derby Corinthians and Heanor Town. In February 1960 he was sold to Shrewsbury Town and his early appearances for the Shrews were made at inside-forward with some success, in his third senior appearance he scored two goals to knock Everton out of the League Cup. He later returned to playing in the centre of defence but lost his place in the side in the 1969–70 season. In July 1971 he had the briefest of loan periods at Crewe Alexandra, where he appeared in Watney Cup action, before returning to Gay Meadow to conclude a career which saw his final total of appearances for the Shrews reach 371.

Fred Donaldson (Born: Stoke-on-Trent, 7 April 1937. Died: Stoke-on-Trent, 24 July 2018.) Fred Donaldson was a versatile player who featured at full-back, inside-forward and wing-half during his career. A product of Potteries' junior football, he made his debut for Port Vale at the end of the 1954–55 season but then had to wait over two years for his next appearance. He spent six years on the books at Vale Park and also played for Exeter City and Chester, making a total of over 100 senior appearances before switching to non-league football with Macclesfield Town.

Vic Dougherty (Born: Glasgow, 17 January 1955. Died: March 2019.) Vic Dougherty was a product of Glasgow schools football who moved south to join Bury as an apprentice. A defender, he made 10 first team appearances for the Shakers, all before his 18th birthday. After leaving Gigg Lane he stayed in the North West and played for a number of clubs including Mossley, Horwich RMI and Radcliffe Borough.

Bobby Doyle (Born: Dumbarton, 27 December 1953. Died: 26 February 2019.) Bobby Doyle was a creative midfield player who signed for Barnsley in December 1972 shortly after leaving school. He went on to enjoy a successful career in the lower divisions of the Football League, initially playing on the flanks before moving to a more central role. He was highly regarded at all his clubs, winning a place in the PFA Divisional Team of the Year with both Barnsley (Division Four, 1974–75) and Portsmouth (Division Three, 1982–83) and being chosen by The People as the Third Division Player of the Season in 1976–77 while with Peterborough United. He was a near ever-present in the Pompey team that won the Third Division title in 1982–83. He also played for Blackpool and Hull City where his career was effectively ended after he suffered a bad injury in a pre-season friendly in August 1986.

Ray Dyer (Born: Stockport, 12 May 1938. Died: 9 December 2018.) Ray Dyer was a winger who made a solitary Football League appearance for Stockport County against Gateshead in October 1956. A former England Schools triallist he had been on the books of Bolton Wanderers as an amateur before signing for Stockport. His senior career was interrupted by National Service and he went on to mostly play in local football in the Stockport area.

Brian Edgley (Born: Shrewsbury, 26 August 1937. Died: Australia, February 2019.) Brian Edgley was a local lad who was on amateur forms with Shrewsbury Town before turning professional in February 1956, shortly after making his first team debut. Although initially a winger he went on to become a versatile forward, making over 100 first-team appearances for the Shrews and helping them win promotion from the Fourth Division in 1958–59. He later had a spell in the top flight with Cardiff City before winding down his Football League career at Brentford and Barnsley. After doing the rounds of non-league football and a spell in South Africa he emigrated to Australia where he became a successful coach, being named as Victoria State Coach of the Year in 1975 and winning the Victoria State League with Preston Makedonia in 1980.

Justin Edinburgh (Born: Basildon, 18 December 1969. Died: 8 June 2019.) Justin Edinburgh was a determined left-back who was a trainee with Southend United, establishing himself in the side during the 1989–90 promotion campaign. His performances earned him a transfer to Tottenham Hotspur in the summer of 1990 and he quickly became a first-team regular, gaining an FA Cup winners' medal in his first season at White Hart Lane. He went on to make over 200 top-flight appearances for Spurs and added a League Cup winners' medal in 1999. He moved on to Portsmouth in March 2000 but injuries began to take their toll and in 2002 he retired as a player on medical advice. He subsequently moved into management and after spells with a number of non-league clubs he enjoyed success with Newport County, taking them to the FA Trophy final in 2012 and a place in the Football League via the play-offs the following year. He then managed Gillingham (February 2015 to January 2017), Northampton Town (January 2017 to August 2017) and Leyton Orient (from November 2017). His tragic death following a cardiac arrest came just weeks after he had led Orient to the National League title and a place back in the Football League.

Bob Edwards (Born: Guildford, 22 May 1931. Died: 29 May 2019.) Inside-forward Bob Edwards made his debut for Chelsea in the 1952–53 season but, unable to establish himself in the line-up, moved to Swindon Town in the 1955 close season. He did well at the County Ground, leading the scoring charts in 1956–57 and scoring 70 goals from 185 League and Cup appearances. However, future moves to Norwich City and Northampton Town were less successful and he subsequently switched to Southern League football with King's Lynn.

Walter Edwards (Born: Mansfield Woodhouse, 26 June 1924. Died: Mansfield, 5 November 2018.) Walter Edwards was a winger who signed amateur forms for Mansfield Town in the summer of 1947, turning professional the following November after being demobbed from Army service. He made 26 appearances for the Stags before being sold to Leeds United in March 1949. However, he made just two appearances during a very brief stay at Elland Road then spent the 1949–50 season with Leicester City without breaking into the first team before leaving senior football. He was Mansfield Town's oldest surviving player at the time of his death.

Bryn Elliott (Born: Beeston, 3 May 1925. Died: 15 February 2019.) Bryn Elliott was a half-back who signed for Nottingham Forest in October 1942 and made a number of first-team appearances while on leave from military service. He was eventually demobbed in September 1947 but struggled to make an impact at the City Ground. After a brief spell in Midland League football with Boston United his career was resurrected by Southampton. He joined the Saints in October 1949, staying for a decade and making over 250 first-team appearances before eventually moving on to Poole Town.

Des Farrow (Born: Peterborough, 11 February 1926. Died: 2019.) Des Farrow was a wing-half or inside-forward who joined Queens Park Rangers in November 1944. He was a regular in the line-up in 1945–46 but was then posted with the RAF to India and it was not until the 1948–49 season that he was able to play regularly again. He made over 100 first team appearances during his stay at Loftus Road before moving on for an unsuccessful spell with Stoke City then switching to Midland League football with Peterborough United.

Joe Fascione (Born: Coatbridge, Lanarkshire, 5 February 1945. Died: 2019.) Joe Fascione was a small but skilful winger who joined Chelsea from Kirkintilloch Rob Roy in October 1962. He was still a teenager when he made his debut for the Blues but in seven years at Stamford Bridge he was mostly a reserve, making a total of 34 senior appearances. He later spent two years with Durban City and on his return he played for Romford and Barking.

Ken Finney (Born: St Helens, 10 March 1929. Died: Warrington, 7 July 2018.) Ken Finney was a winger and occasional centre forward who joined Stockport County from St Helens Town in December 1947 but although he made sporadic appearances it was not until the 1954–55 season that he featured regularly in the line-up. In March 1958 he moved on to Tranmere Rovers where he enjoyed a further four seasons of regular first-team football and took his total of senior appearances to just short of 400. He subsequently joined non-league Altrincham.

Tony Flower (Born: Carlton, Nottingham, 2 January 1945. Died: January 2019.) Tony Flower was a winger who joined the groundstaff at Notts County as a 15-year-old in February 1960, signing a professional contract at the age of 17. He left County for Halifax Town in the summer of 1967 where he contributed to the club's promotion campaign of 1968–69 before leaving senior football at the end of the following season. He played a total of 232 League and Cup appearances during his career, scoring 31 goals.

Andy Fraser (Born: Newtongrange, Midlothian, 29 August 1940. Died: 18 September 2018.) Andy Fraser was a tall half-back who progressed from Newtongrange Star to sign for Heart of Midlothian in June 1957. Competition for places at Tynecastle was fierce and he was restricted to just four first-team appearances during his stay. After being released at the end of the 1960–61 season he spent the summer playing in the Eastern Canada Professional League with Toronto City then signed for Hartlepools United. He went on to make 85 appearances for Pools and was a near ever-present in 1963–64 before moving back to play for Newtongrange Star.

Stewart Fraser (Born: Aberdeen, 25 September 1936. Died: December 2018.) Left-half Stewart Fraser came to prominence as a member of the Banks O' Dee team that won the Scottish Junior Cup in 1957. In October that year he signed for Dundee United who were to be his only senior club. He stayed at Tannadice for a decade, contributing to the 1959–60 promotion campaign and winning representative honours for the Scottish League. However, he suffered a broken leg during the 1964–65 campaign and although he made a full return to fitness he was never able to win back a regular place in the line-up. He retired in April 1967 having made 248 League and Cup appearances and later had a spell with Brora Rangers in the Highland League. He was inducted into the Dundee United Hall of Fame in 2010.

Alan Gilzean (Born: Coupar Angus, 22 October 1938. Died: Weston-super-Mare, 8 July 2018.) Alan Gilzean was an exceptional striker who enjoyed fine careers both in Scotland and England. Signed by Dundee during the 1956–57 season, he was required to undergo a period of National Service early on, playing a few games for Aldershot Reserves during this time. He went on to head the Dundee scoring charts four seasons in a row (1960–61 to 1963–64) and he finished with the exceptional figures of 165 goals from 185 appearances. His scoring feats significantly helped the Dark Blues win the Scottish League title in 1961–62 and reach the semi-final of the European Cup the following season. In December 1964 he signed for Tottenham Hotspur where he forged a productive partnership with Jimmy Greaves which helped win the FA Cup in 1967. Later he partnered Martin Chivers up front as Spurs won the League Cup in 1970–71 and 1972–73 and the UEFA Cup in 1971–72. He subsequently spent time with Johannesburg club Highlands Park and was briefly manager of Stevenage Athletic before leaving the game. He won 22 caps for Scotland and also won representative honours for Scotland U23s and the Scottish League.

Jon Gittens (Born: Moseley, Birmingham, 22 January 1964. Died: 10 May 2019.) Jon Gittens was a quick and powerful defender who was plucked from Midlands non-league football by Southampton in October 1985. He never quite settled at The Dell and was sold to Swindon Town in the summer of 1987 where he became a first-team regular over the next four seasons. Saints bought him back for a reported £400,000 fee (10 times what they had sold him for) but again he struggled to get in the team. Moves to Middlesbrough and Portsmouth followed before he concluded his career in the lower divisions with Torquay United and Exeter City. After retiring from playing he became involved in coaching and went on to become an FA coach educator, teaching other coaches.

Freddie Glidden (Born: Newmains, Lanarkshire, 7 September 1927. Died: Armadale, West Lothian, 1 January 2019.) Freddie Glidden developed with juvenile club Murrayfield Rovers during the war and was a member of their team that won the Lord Weir Cup in 1944–45. He was then 'farmed out' to Newtongrange Star where he won Junior international honours. After making his senior debut for Heart of Midlothian in November 1951 he became a solid figure in the centre of defence. He went on to make over 200 first-team appearances, captaining the team when they won the Scottish Cup in 1956 and also played in the club's Scottish League Cup winning teams of 1954 and 1956. He subsequently ended his career with a three-year spell at Dumbarton.

Derek Grace (Born: Chiswick, 29 December 1944. Died: 8 January 2019.) Derek Grace was a wing-half or inside-forward who served an apprenticeship with Queens Park Rangers before joining Exeter City in May 1962. He spent three years at St James Park, although his only season of regular first team football was 1963–64 when the Grecians won promotion from the old Fourth Division. He subsequently had a brief spell at Gillingham then moved into non-league football with Margate.

Johnny Graham (Born: 8 January 1945. Died: 31 October 2018.) Johnny Graham was an inside forward with Strathclyde Juniors when he signed for Third Lanark in April 1962 but he was converted into an outside-right, where he played both for Thirds and Dundee United. He was transferred to Falkirk in January 1965 where a switch back to inside-forward revitalised his career and he went on to top the scoring charts for the Bairns four seasons in a row. He later spent two seasons with Hibernian before moving on to Ayr United where he was appointed captain and was a key figure in ensuring the club were founder members of the new Premier Division in 1975–76. He wound down his career playing in midfield back at Falkirk.

Rodney Green (Born: Halifax, 24 June 1939. Died: 21 November 2018.) Rodney Green was a big powerful centre-forward who joined Halifax Town from local football in August 1960. Over the next decade he went on to enjoy a somewhat peripatetic career, turning out for eight different clubs and concluding with a respectable tally of 106 goals from 269 appearances. He rarely stayed more than 12 months in any one place but his most productive time was at Bradford City where he topped the scoring charts in both 1962–63 and 1963–64. Towards the end of his career he played cameo roles in the promotion campaigns of both Luton Town and Watford before moving to South Africa to play for Durban United.

Johnny Haasz (Born: Budapest, Hungary, 7 July 1937. Died: 2 June 2018.) Johnny Haasz had played in Hungary with the Air Force team before leaving the country in the aftermath of the 1956 Hungarian Uprising and making his way to the UK. He was initially only allowed to play as an amateur but after scoring regularly for Midland League club Gainsborough Trinity he signed for Swansea Town. Although he was leading scorer for the Swans' reserves he made just one appearance in the first team before moving on to Workington in the summer of 1961. He played over 50 games during his stay at Borough Park and had the misfortune to score all four in a 4-0 win at Accrington Stanley which was later deleted from the official records when that club resigned from the League. He subsequently played in the Southern League for Cambridge United.

George Haigh (Born: Reddish, Stockport, 29 June 1915. Died: Middleton Cheney, Northants, 23 April 2019.) George Haigh was a centre-half who was on the books of Manchester City as an amateur before signing as a professional for Stockport County in November 1936 and making two appearances in Division Three North matches in 1938–39. He also made 60 appearances for Rochdale during the war as well as playing for RAF Morecambe. When peacetime returned he had a brief association with Wigan Athletic and also played for Lancaster City and Rossendale United. At the time of his death he was the oldest surviving former Stockport County player.

Dave Hargreaves (Born: Accrington, 27 August 1954. Died: August 2018.) Dave Hargreaves is the modern Accrington Stanley club's record scorer, netting 309 goals in 322 appearances in two spells between 1974 and 1985. His total of 56 goals in 44 appearances in 1975–76, when the club played in the Lancashire Combination, is a club record for a season. In between he spent time on the books of Blackburn Rovers, making two Second Division appearances during his stay.

David Harney (Born: Jarrow, 2 March 1947. Died: April 2019.) David Harney was a centre- or inside-forward who was on the books of Grimsby Town as a teenager but did not progress beyond the reserve team. In the summer of 1967 he moved to local rivals Scunthorpe United and began the 1967–68 season as a regular in the line-up until injury struck in November 1967, which effectively marked the end of his senior career. He played a few more games for the Iron and made one appearance during a trial at Brentford at the start of the 1969–70 season before signing for Southern League club Wimbledon.

Hugh Harra (Born: Cadder, Lanarkshire, 29 March 1936. Died: 2018.) A former Junior with Rutherglen Glencairn, Hugh Harra developed into an uncompromising wing-half or inside-forward in spells with Falkirk and Dumbarton. His best seasons were spent with Dumbarton (1962 to 1967) for whom he made over 150 first-team appearances and captained the side.

Eric Harrison MBE (Born: Mytholmroyd, Yorkshire, 5 February 1938. Died: 13 February 2019.) Eric Harrison was a hard-tackling centre half who forged a 15-year career in the lower divisions of the Football League, making over 500 League and Cup appearances. After joining Halifax Town from local football he made his first-team debut as a teenager and went on to play for Hartlepools United, Barrow and Southport. He was a member of the Barrow team that won promotion from the Fourth Division in 1966–67. He later became a highly respected youth coach firstly with Everton then with Manchester United from 1981 to 2008 during which time he developed the renowned 'Class of 92'.

Mike Harrison (Born: Ilford, 18 April 1940. Died: Spain, 27 January 2019.) Winger Mike Harrison was only 16 when he made his First Division debut for Chelsea and was a member of the team that reached the final of the FA Youth Cup in 1957–58. However, in six seasons at Stamford Bridge he was only really a regular in 1961–62 when the club were relegated from the top flight. In September 1962 he was transferred to Blackburn Rovers where he enjoyed the best years of his career, scoring 40 goals from 160 Football League appearances, most of which were in the top flight. He wound down with spells at Plymouth Argyle and Luton Town. He was capped for both England Schools and England U23s.

Johnny Hart (Born: Golborne, Lancashire, 8 June 1928. Died: 26 November 2018.) Johnny Hart was an inside-forward who was an office boy with Manchester City during the war, signing professional forms on reaching his 17th birthday. Although his career was affected by injuries he went on to score 73 goals from 178 first-team appearances, although he missed out on both the 1955 and 1956 FA Cup finals. He was leading scorer for City on three occasions and on retirement as a player in 1963 he joined the backroom staff at Maine Road, eventually having a short period as manager of the club (March to October 1973). He was inducted into the Manchester City Hall of Fame in 2006.

Keith Harvey (Born: Crediton, Devon, 25 December 1934. Died: October 2018.) Keith Harvey signed for Exeter City as a teenager in the summer of 1952 and went on to spend 17 years with the Grecians, making over 500 senior appearances, the second highest in the club's history. An effective centre-half, he established himself in the side in the second half of the 1954–55 season and apart from injury was a first choice in the line-up until he was appointed trainer for the 1966–67 campaign. He made just a handful of appearances that season before returning to the side for two further seasons as a regular. He was an ever-present in the promotion winning team of 1963–64 and was the club's Player of the Year in 1965–66.

Wally Hazelden (Born: Ashton-in-Makerfield, Lancashire, 13 February 1941. Died: February 2019.) Inside-forward Wally Hazelden was an early product of the Aston Villa youth set-up and became the club's youngest-ever first-team player when he made his debut aged 16 years and 279 days in November 1957. Although capped by England at Youth international level he was never able to establish a regular place in the side at Villa Park and in the summer of 1960 he moved on to Wigan Athletic, then members of the Lancashire Combination. He scored at almost a goal a game during his only season at Springfield Park before returning to the Midlands to sign for Southern League club Rugby Town.

Don Hazledine (Born: Arnold, Nottinghamshire, 10 July 1929. Died: 2018.) Don Hazledine was an inside-forward who joined Derby County from local football in Nottingham but in three years at the Baseball Ground he never really established himself in the side. In the summer of 1954 he moved to Northampton Town in part exchange for Frank Upton but he lasted only a season with the Cobblers before switching to Boston United, then members of the Midland League. In December 1955 he captained Boston to a sensational 6-1 FA Cup victory away to Derby with a side that included six former Rams players.

John Hellawell (Born: Keighley, 20 December 1943. Died: Leeds, 14 February 2019.) John Hellawell was an inside-forward who joined Bradford City from amateur club Salts and went on to make over 50 appearances during his time at Valley Parade. He later had spells with Rotherham United, Darlington and Bradford Park Avenue but he made little impact at all three clubs before moving on to Bromsgrove Rovers.

Alan Hercher (Born: Dingwall, 11 August 1965. Died: August 2018.) Alan Hercher was a powerful midfield player who played for Ross County and Inverness Caledonian in the Highland League before moving over to the newly formed Inverness Caledonian Thistle for the 1993–95 season. He was the club's first captain and scored a hat-trick against Arbroath in their first-ever Scottish League fixture. He spent three seasons with Thistle where he was a member of the team that won the Division Three title in 1996–97. He later returned to Highland League football with Clachnacuddin and Brora Rangers.

Ally Hill (Born: Glasgow, 25 April 1934. Died: Blairgowrie, 18 December 2018.) Ally Hill won two caps for Scotland Juniors as a teenager with Jeanfield Swifts prior to signing professional forms with Clyde at the age of 18. He stayed six years at Shawfield, where he was a member of the team that defeated Celtic to win the Scottish Cup final in 1955. After a brief spell with Dundee he moved south to Bristol City, where he had an unsuccessful time, before returning to Scotland to play for Stirling Albion and Falkirk.

Wally Hinshelwood (Born: Battersea, 27 October 1929. Died: 26 November 2018.) Wally Hinshelwood was a winger who worked as an office boy at Fulham until reaching the age of 17 when he signed professional forms. Like many players of his generation his early career was disrupted by National Service, during which he served with the Army in Hong Kong. Although unable to fully establish himself at Craven Cottage, or in a brief association with Chelsea, he went on to enjoy a useful career Reading and then Bristol City, making over 100 first-team appearances with both clubs. He concluded with spells at Millwall, Toronto Italia and Newport County.

Barrie Hole (Born: Swansea, 16 September 1942. Died: 25 March 2019.) Barrie Hole was a wing-half who joined Cardiff City as a youngster and was just 17 years-old when he made his first-team debut. He spent five seasons as a first-team regular with the Bluebirds, making over 200 first team appearances and gaining Welsh Cup winners' medals in 1964 and 1965. He later played for Blackburn Rovers, Aston Villa and Swansea City taking his total of senior appearances beyond the 450-mark. He also won representative honours for Wales at Schools and U23 levels and won 30 full caps between 1963 and 1971.

Reg Holland (Born: Sutton-in-Ashfield, 23 January 1940. Died: 3 January 2019.) Reg Holland was an England Schools international who joined Manchester United as a youngster. He enjoyed a fine career in youth football winning England Youth caps and being a member of the United teams that won the FA Youth Cup in 1955–56 and 1956–57. Unable to break into the first team at Old Trafford, he moved on to Wrexham towards the end of the 1959–60 season. He went on to make over 100 appearances, mostly at full back, during a six-year stay at the Racecourse Ground then spent a season with Chester before moving into non-league football with Altrincham.

Harry Hood (Born: Glasgow, 3 October 1944. Died: 26 May 2019.) Harry Hood was a skilful forward who made his name with Clyde, heading the club's scoring charts 1963–64 as the club won promotion back to the top flight. The following November he was sold to Sunderland. However, he never really settled at Roker Park and spent much of his time on the transfer list before returning to Shawfield in October 1966. His goalscoring touch returned and in March 1969 he was sold again, this time to Celtic. He enjoyed an excellent career at Parkhead where he won six Scottish League championships, four Scottish Cups and two League Cups. He later had a spell in the NASL with San Antonio Thunder and returned to play for Motherwell and Queen of the South before leaving senior football. He won representative honours for Scotland U23s and the Scottish League and toured with a Scottish FA XI in 1967. He later briefly managed Albion Rovers (February to April 1981) and Queen of the South (February to April 1982).

Tony Hopper (Born: Carlisle, 31 May 1976. Died: Carlisle, 9 October 2018.) Tony Hopper was a midfield player who made his first-team debut for Carlisle United at the age of 16. He went on to make over 100 appearances during two separate spells at Brunton Park, contributing to the club's 1996–97 promotion campaign. In between he spent six months with League of Ireland club Bohemians (where he featured in UEFA Cup action) and Workington. After leaving senior football he played for a number of clubs in the North West including Barrow, Workington and Celtic Nation. His early death was as a result of motor neurone disease.

Harry Hough (Born: Chapeltown, Sheffield, 26 September 1924. Died: 2019.) Goalkeeper Harry Hough signed for Barnsley from Thornehlle Welfare in September 1947 and although he made his first-team debut shortly afterwards it was not until the 1951–52 season that he became first-choice at Oakwell. He went on to make over 350 appearances for the club and was an ever-present in the team that won the Division Three North title in 1954–55. Later he had two seasons at Bradford Park Avenue before joining Denaby United.

Roger Hoy (Born: Poptar, 6 December 1946. Died: New South Wales, Australia, 9 November 2018.) Roger Hoy had been on the books of West Ham United as an inside-forward but was released and signed for Tottenham Hotspur who successfully converted him to a role in defence. He provided back-up to Mike England at White Hart Lane but on moving to Crystal Palace he won a regular place in the side, contributing to their 1968–69 promotion campaign. He spent the 1970–71 season with Luton where he played as a midfielder before moving on to Cardiff City where a serious knee injury effectively ended his career.

Johnny Hubbard MM (Born: Pretoria, South Africa, 16 December 1930. Died: Prestwick, Ayrshire, 21 June 2018.) Winger Johnny Hubbard was one of many South African stars who moved to British football in the years after the Second World War when he signed for Rangers in July 1949. He spent a successful decade at Ibrox, with the highlight coming on New Year's Day 1955 when he scored a hat-trick in the Old Firm match. He gained a Scottish Cup winners' medal in 1953 and was a member of three Scottish League winning teams (1952–53, 1955–56 and 1956–57). He also had a phenomenal record as a penalty taker, scoring more than 50 times with spot kicks. He later had a spell with Bury where he was a near ever-present in the team that won the Division Three title in 1960–61 before concluding his senior career with Ayr United.

Brian Hughes (Born: Swansea, 22 November 1937. Died: Victoria, British Columbia, Canada, 7 October 2018.) Brian Hughes was a local lad who won Schools and Youth international honours for Wales before signing professional forms for Swansea Town in July 1956. He soon progressed to the first team at the Vetch Field and made over 250 first-team appearances during his stay, a highlight coming when he lined up at left-back for the FA Cup semi-final against Preston in March 1964. He also featured for the Atlanta Chiefs team that won the NASL Championship in 1968.

Mike Hughes (Born: Llandloes, 3 September 1940. Died: December 2018.) Mike Hughes was a hard-tackling wing-half who was playing in Cardiff City's reserve team at the age of 16. However, competition for places at Ninian Park was fierce and he managed just a solitary first-team outing during his stay. He made further progress in two seasons with Exeter City but his best football was played in a six-year spell with Chesterfield (1963 to 1969). He made over 200 appearances during his stay at Saltergate before becoming player-manager of Yeovil Town where he led the team to the Southern League championship and a place in the FA Cup third round in 1970–71. He later had a spell as coach of Torquay United.

Dennis Hunt (Born: Portsmouth, 8 September 1937. Died: Seabrook, Kent, 29 January 2019.) Dennis Hunt was a robust and uncompromising left back who signed for Gillingham in September 1958 and went on to spend a decade with the club, making over 350 first-team appearances. A highlight came in the 1963–64 season when he was a near ever-present in the team that won the Division Four title, conceding just 30 goals. He concluded his senior career at Brentford and then became player-manager of Folkestone Town.

Ernie Hunt (Born: Swindon, 17 March 1943. Died: Gloucestershire, 20 June 2018.) Ernie Hunt became Swindon Town's youngest-ever player when he made his first-team debut in September 1959. He went on to finish as the team's leading scorer four seasons in a row and played an important role in assisting the club to promotion from Division Three in 1962–63. An attacking player with great flair, he helped Wolverhampton Wanderers win promotion to the First Division in 1966–67 and after a very brief spell at Everton he signed for Coventry City where he enjoyed some of the best years of his career. In 1970–71 he won the BBC Match of the Day Goal of the Season award as a result of his 'donkey-kick' goal against Everton. He concluded his career back in the West Country at Bristol City.

Ron Hunt (Born: Paddington, 19 December 1945. Died: 23 August 2018.) Centre-half Ron Hunt developed with the Pathfinders Boys Club in Slough before signing for Queens Park Rangers at the age of 17. He was still a teenager when given his first-team debut and was a key figure in the Hoops' success in 1966–67, winning both the Football League Cup and the Division Three title. Injury then restricted his appearances and he eventually retired in 1973, having played over 250 games for the club.

Cliff Huxford (Born: Stroud, 8 June 1937. Died: 3 August 2018.) Cliff Huxford was a powerful wing-half who joined Chelsea as an amateur at the age of 15, progressing to professional status shortly before his 18th birthday. His career at Stamford Bridge was disrupted by National Service and in the summer of 1959 he was allowed to leave for Southampton. He went straight into the Saints line-up and was an ever-present in his first season when they lifted the Division Three title. He remained at The Dell until May 1967 by which time he had made over 300 first-team appearances and assisted the club to promotion to the First Division in 1965–66. He concluded his senior career with a season at Exeter and later played and coached with a number of non-league clubs.

Jim Iley (Born: South Kirkby, Yorkshire, 15 December 1935. Died: 18 November 2018.) Jim Iley was a solid and effective wing half who signed for Sheffield United as a teenager. He made over 100 appearances for the Blades before moving on to Tottenham Hotspur where his performances earned him representative honours for England U23s and the Football League. A move to Nottingham Forest followed but his best years were probably spent with Newcastle United (1962 to 1969) where he made over 200 appearances and was a key figure in the team which won the Second Division title in 1964–65. He subsequently became player-manager of Peterborough United and then went on to manage Barnsley, Blackburn Rovers, Bury and Exeter City.

Gerry Irving (Born: Allerby, near Maryport, 19 September 1937. Died: 2018.) Gerry Irving joined Workington as a winger and made a single appearance for them, lining up at Oldham Athletic in October 1956. After a spell with Aspatria he signed for Queen of the South in August 1959 with whom he went on to make over 150 senior appearances before eventually moving on to Morecambe, initially as a player before switching to coaching.

Lennart Johansson (Born: Bromma, Stockholm, 5 November 1929. Died: Stockholm, 4 June 2019.) Lennart Johansson was the longest serving president of UEFA, holding the position between 1990 and 2007. During that time he oversaw the introduction of the Champions League in place of the European Cup and the complete transformation of UEFA. He was president of the Swedish Football Association (SvFF) between 1984 and 1991 and was elected to the top position in UEFA in 1990. He unsuccessfully stood for president of FIFA in 1998 when he lost out to Sepp Blatter. In 2001 the Allsvenskan [Swedish League] championship trophy was named the Lennart Johansson Pokal in his honour.

Tommy Johnson (Born: Stockton, 5 March 1926. Died: 9 December 2018.) Tommy Johnson was a wing-half or inside-forward who made a number of wartime appearances for Middlesbrough before joining Darlington where he featured in the 1947–48 season. He later played in non-league football for Stockton and Horden CW before briefly returning to senior football with Bradford Park Avenue where he was principally a reserve, making just a single first-team appearance. He went on to join the back-room staff at Hartlepools United staying 25 years, before spending a further decade as physio at Middlesbrough.

Brian Jordan (Born: Bentley, South Yorks, 31 January 1932. Died: December 2018.) Half-back Brian Jordan signed for Derby County as a part-time professional in October 1951 but failed to make a breakthrough at the Baseball Ground and after dropping down to the Midland League with Denaby United he was given a second chance by Rotherham United. He spent five years on the books at Millmoor and also had spells with Middlesbrough and York City, making a total of 51 appearances before leaving senior football.

Tom Kay (Died: 24 July 2018.) Wing-half Tom Kay progressed from Juvenile club Cowdenbeath Royals to sign for Cowdenbeath in February 1960 but after just a handful of games at Central Park he was sidelined by a broken leg. He later spent two seasons in the Southern League with Bedford Town before he returned to Scotland and became involved in coaching, notably with Hill of Beath Swifts.

Charlie Kelsall (Born: Buckley, Flintshire, 15 April 1921. Died: Hawarden, Deeside, 20 April 2019.) A product of West Cheshire League club Buckley Town, Charlie Kelsall signed for Wrexham in August 1939, shortly before war broke out. He went on to play 23 wartime games for the Robins and one for New Brighton (for which they were fined by the Football League) before spending most of the remainder of the war serving with the Army in India. He returned to the Racecourse Ground and remained until the end of the 1951–52 season, although he was mostly a reserve during this time, making a further 41 appearances.

Mick Kennedy (Born: Salford, 9 April 1961. Died: 9 February 2019.) Mick Kennedy was a combative central midfield player who spent most of his career in the lower divisions of the Football League. Starting out at Halifax Town in the Fourth Division, he moved up the leagues with Huddersfield Town (Third Division) and Middlesbrough (Second Division). He played his best football with Portsmouth (1984–1988) where he was club captain and led the team to promotion to the First Division in 1986–87. He continued to play through to the end of the 1993–94 season, his final games being with Wigan Athletic. He won two full caps for the Republic of Ireland and was inducted into the Pompey Hall of Fame in 2018.

Ian Larnach (Born: Ferryhill, Co. Durham, 10 July 1951. Died: April 2019.) Ian Larnach was a centre-forward who made two appearances for Darlington as a teenager, scoring in his only start against Notts County in March 1970. He later played for South Shields and Spennymoor before returning to Feethams to work with the reserve and youth teams.

Pat Laverty (Born: Gorseinon, near Swansea, 24 May 1934. Died: March 2019.) Pat Laverty was an inside-forward who had a trial for the Wales Amateur team before joining Sheffield United from Cheshire League club Wellington Town in May 1956. However, he was mostly a reserve during four seasons at Bramall Lane, making only seven first-team appearances. He featured fairly regularly for Southend United in 1960–61 before rejoining Wellington Town.

Jimmy Lawton (Born: Middlesbrough, 6 July 1942. Died: 17 January 2019.) Jimmy Lawton was a centre- or inside-forward who was a regular for Darlington in the early 1960s and led the club's scoring charts with 25 goals in the 1964–65 season. He was sold to Swindon Town in September 1965 the day after his goal knocked them out of the League Cup, and later played under his former colleague Ken Furphy at Watford although he was unable to repeat the goalscoring form he had shown with the Quakers. He eventually returned to Darlington but a knee injury ended his career at the age of 27.

Fred Leeder (Born: New Hartley, Seaton, 15 September 1936. Died: August 2018.) Full-back Fred Leeder made a single top-flight appearance for Everton against Chelsea in January 1958, deputising for the injured Jimmy Tansey. He moved on to Darlington where he featured more regularly and then to Southport where he was mostly a first choice at right-back. He later played in non-league football with Runcorn and New Brighton.

Geoff Lees (Born: Rotherham, 1 October 1933. Died: 6 June 2019.) Geoff Lees was a wing-half who was on the books of Barnsley as a youngster without making the first team. He completed his National Service with the 5th Regiment Royal Horse Artillery who had a renowned soccer team and later spent two years with Bradford (City, making three first-team appearances towards the end of the 1955–56 season. After a career in teaching he returned to Oakwell as one of the club's youth team coaches.

Lawrie Leslie (Born: Edinburgh, 17 March 1935. Died: Wilmington, Kent, 4 June 2019.) Goalkeeper Lawrie Leslie joined Hibernian after completing his National Service and was a member of the team defeated by Clyde in the Scottish Cup final of 1958. He moved on to Airdrieonians, where his performances won him representative honours for both Scotland and the Scottish League and earned him a move to West Ham United. He was chosen as Hammer of the Year in his first season with the club but after suffering a broken leg he lost his place and moved on to spells with Stoke City (where he was a League Cup runner-up), Millwall and Southend United.

Derek Lewin (Born: Manchester, 18 May 1930. Died: March 2019.) Derek Lewin was an amateur inside-forward who made 10 first-team appearances for Oldham Athletic, all bar one in the 1953–54 season. In December 1954 he signed for Bishop Auckland and he played and scored in each of the club's consecutive FA Amateur Cup final wins of 1955, 1956 and 1957. He also won five England Amateur caps and was a member of the Great Britain squad for the 1956 Melbourne Olympic Games. In addition for his experience with Oldham he made a solitary Football league appearance for Accrington Stanley and was one of three Bishop Auckland players who assisted Manchester United in the aftermath of the Munich Disaster, although he did not play in the first team. He was later a director of Blackpool FC and served as a member of the Lancashire FA Council and the FA Council.

Ronnie Lewis (Born: Belfast, 10 February 1932. Died: 2018.) Inside forward Ronnie Lewis was capped for Northern Ireland Schools and Youth teams, featuring alongside both Jimmy McIlroy and Billy Bingham in the youth set-up. He joined Burnley from Cliftonville Olympic in the summer of 1949 but failed to make a breakthrough at Turf Moor. After spending a season with Southern League club Weymouth he returned to senior football with Barrow for whom he made five appearances in the 1954–55 season. He was later active in non-league football in Lancashire for many years.

Jimmy Linton (Born: Glasgow, 2 December 1930. Died: Milton Keynes, 7 November 2018.) Goalkeeper Jimmy Linton was a member of the Kirkintilloch Rob Roy Juveniles team that reached the Secondary Juvenile Cup final in 1951 and within a matter of weeks he had signed professional forms for Notts County. He had to wait until completing his National Service with the Army before eventually making his debut at Huddersfield Town in November 1952. He went on to make over 100 Football League appearances for the Terriers and then moved to Watford for whom he was a near ever-present in the team that won promotion from Division Four in 1959–60. After taking his total of senior appearances beyond the 200-mark he moved into non-league football with Poole Town.

Jim Lynn (Born: 7 November 1947. Died: 9 September 2018.) Jim Lynn was a winger who scored the goal that won the Scottish Junior Cup final for Blantyre Victoria against Penicuik Athletic at Hampden in 1970. He went on to make 81 senior appearances, turning out for Albion Rovers and Stenhousemuir before returning to Junior football with Carluke Rovers for the 1973–74 season.

Bobby McCool (Born: Edinburgh, 11 August 1942. Died: 22 March 2019.) Bobby McCool started out as a winger, making four first-team appearances for Third Lanark while still a teenager. In the summer of 1962 he played for Hamilton Steelers in the Eastern Canada Professional League and on his return he signed for Cheltenham Town. He went on to forge a lengthy career in the Southern League firstly with the Robins and then with Gloucester City.

Terry McDonald (Born: Belfast, 5 February 1947. Died: Eccleston, near Chorley, 6 August 2018.) Terry McDonald won Schools and Youth international honours for Northern Ireland and as a youngster spent 18 months on the books of Middlesbrough where he featured in the reserve team. He was still a teenager when he signed for Southport in July 1965 and he went on to contribute to the club's run to the FA Cup fifth round in 1965–66 and to the following season's promotion campaign. He subsequently spent two seasons with Barrow before an ankle injury effectively ended his senior career.

Roy McDowell (Born: Jedburgh, 11 June 1947. Died: March 2019.) Central defender Roy McDowell enjoyed two spells with Berwick Rangers between 1971 and 1981, making over 350 appearances in total and helping them with the Second Division title in 1978–79. In between he spent six months with League of Ireland club Drogheda United. He later spent time as manager of Jeanfield Swifts before becoming a director and then chairman of Berwick Rangers in the early 1990s.

Jimmy McGowan (Born: Glasgow, 31 July 1939. Died: Sutton-in-Ashfield, 6 January 2019.) Jimmy McGowan was an inside-forward who developed with Kirkintilloch Rob Roy. He moved into the seniors with St Johnstone in January 1960 but made just a single first team appearance during his stay in Perth. He moved south, making three appearances for Mansfield Town in 1961–62 then playing in the Southern League for Margate and Burton Albion.

Hugh McIlvanney OBE (Born: Kilmarnock, 2 February 1934. Died: 24 January 2019.) Hugh McIlvanney was a journalist who began his career at the Kilmarnock Standard and went on to become the leading sports journalist of his era, spending 30 years at the Observer and 25 years at the Sunday Times before retiring in 2016. He was awarded the OBE in 1996 and was Sports Journalist of the Year on seven occasions.

Jimmy McIlroy MBE (Born: Lambeg, Co. Antrim, 25 October 1931. Died: Nelson, Lancs, 20 August 2018.) Jimmy McIlroy was one of the most skilful inside-forwards of his era, a player who could unlock a defence with the most subtle of touches. He was a regular with Irish League club Glentoran when Burnley signed him in March 1950. A regular for the Clarets from October 1950 until his departure in March 1963, he made almost 500 appearances during his stay at Turf Moor. He played a significant role for Burnley in 1959–60 when they won the Football League title, despite carrying an injury for most of that season. He was a member of the Clarets team that reached the quarter finals of the European Cup in 1960–61 before finishing second in the League and beaten finalists in the FA Cup the following season. He was surprisingly allowed to leave for Stoke City where he helped the Potters secure the Division Two title in 1962–63 while the following season he was a member of their team that lost out to Leicester City in the League Cup final. In January 1966 he became player-manager of Oldham Athletic, a post he held until August 1968. Jimmy was capped for Northern Ireland on 55 occasions and was a member of the team that reached the quarter-finals of the 1958 World Cup tournament.

Ian MacKenzie (Born: Rotherham, 27 September 1950. Died: Harby, Notts, August 2018.) Ian MacKenzie was a centre-half or defensive midfield player who developed in the youth set-up at Sheffield United and went on to spend seven years with the club as a professional. He was mostly a reserve at Bramall Lane although he made 53 first-team appearances during his stay. In the summer of 1975 he signed for Mansfield Town and went on to make a useful contribution for the Stags in 1976–77 when they won the Division Three title. He retired from the game in 1978 due to a persistent knee injury.

Billy McNeill MBE (Born: Bellshill, Lanarkshire, 2 March 1940. Died: Glasgow, 22 April 2019.) Billy McNeill was one of the greatest players in the history of Celtic. A towering and immense centre-half from 1957 to 1975 he established a club record total of appearances and as captain lifted a total of 23 trophies. Most important of all he led the Lisbon Lions to victory over Inter Milan in 1967 to become the first British club to win the European Cup. Celtic won every cup available to them that season and to this he was able to add nine consecutive Scottish League titles (1965–66 to 1973–74), seven Scottish Cups and six League Cups. After retiring as a player he turned to management, briefly with Clyde and then Aberdeen before returning to Parkhead. He had two spells as manager of Celtic, adding a further four league titles and four domestic cups to his tally. In between he spent time in England with both Manchester City (where he gained a promotion in 1984–85) and Aston Villa. He won 29 caps for Scotland between 1961 and 1972.

Davie McParland (Born: Larkhall, Lanarkshire, 5 May 1935. Died: 14 July 2018.) David McParland joined Partick Thistle as a teenager during the 1953–54 season and went on to stay with the club for more than 20 years. He was a versatile player featuring both on the wing and at wing-half and made over 500 first-team appearances for the Jags. He gained a League Cup runners-up prize in 1958–59 and also won representative honours for Scotland U23s and the Scottish League. In September 1968 he was appointed assistant manager of the club and two years later he took over as manager. Thistle won promotion from the Second Division in his first campaign in charge and the following season sensationally defeated Celtic 4-1 to win the League Cup. He remained in charge at Firhill until May 1974 and also had spells as manager of both Queen's Park (July 1974 to May 1976) and Hamilton Academical (June 1978 to October 1982).

Billy McPheat (Born: Caldercruix, Lanarkshire, 4 September 1942. Died: Glasgow, 6 April 2019.) Billy McPheat was a robust, tall inside-forward who did well enough in Airdrie schools football to earn a deal with Sunderland. He made a goalscoring debut against Leeds United at the age of 18 and his career was progressing well until he suffered a broken leg in August 1962. It was some time before he was able to return to action and after a brief spell with Hartlepools United he returned to Scotland in the summer of 1966, signing for Airdrieonians. He made over 100 appearances during a five-year stay at Broomfield before leaving the senior game.

Paul Madeley (Born: Beeston, Leeds, 20 September 1944. Died: Leeds, 23 July 2018.) Paul Madeley joined Leeds United from Farsley Celtic in the summer of 1962 and went on to become one of the cornerstones of Don Revie's successful team of the 1960s and '70s. A genuinely versatile player who excelled in a variety of roles, he enjoyed a 19-year career at Elland Road, making over 700 first-team appearances. He was a member of two Football League winning teams (1968–69 and 1973–74), played in three FA Cup finals in four years (gaining a winners' medal in 1972) and also won both the Football League Cup (1967–68) and the Inter Cities Fairs Cup (1970–71). He gained 24 full caps for England between 1971 and 1977 and also won representative honours for the Football League.

Barrie Martin (Born: Birmingham, 29 September 1935. Died: Blackpool, 27 February 2019.) Full-back Barrie Martin signed professional forms for Blackpool at the age of 18 but had to wait four years for his senior debut. He was a regular in the line up from the 1959–60 season and went on to make over 200 appearances for the Seasiders before moving on to Oldham in the summer of 1964. He concluded his career with three seasons at Tranmere Rovers, contributing to their 1966–67 promotion campaign.

Phil Masinga (Born: Klerksdorp, North West Province, South Africa, 28 June 1969. Died: Johannesburg, 13 January 2019.) Phil Masinga was a striker who arrived at Leeds United along with his colleague in the South Africa national team, Lucas Radebe, in August 1994. He featured fairly regularly in the side over the next two seasons, although often being used as a substitute and moved on to play in Switzerland with St Gallen. Later he spent time in Italy with Salernitana. He had played in South Africa's first international match of the modern era and in total won 58 caps, featuring in the side that won the Africa Cup of Nations in 1996 and in the 1998 World Cup finals. His early death was as a result of cancer.

David Meek (Born: York, 1930. Died: 30 October 2018.) David Meek was a reporter who briefly covered York City for the Yorkshire Post before switching to work for the Manchester Evening News. He took over coverage of Manchester United after Tom Jackson lost his life in the Munich Air Disaster and reported on the club until his retirement in 1996. He was also a long-standing contributor to the United programme over many years.

Mickey Metcalf (Born: Liverpool, 24 May 1939. Died: 26 December 2018.) Mickey Metcalf was a skilful forward who signed for Wrexham in May 1957 but it was not until the 1960–61 campaign that he gained a regular place in the side. In December 1963 he moved on to sign for Chester where he enjoyed the best seasons of his career, notably in 1964–65 when he was a member of the team that scored 119 goals, and he finished as leading scorer with 37 League and Cup goals. He eventually left senior football at the end of the 1968–69 season with a very creditable record of 157 goals from 384 appearances. He continued to play non-league football with the likes of Altrincham and Bangor City for several seasons.

Graeme Morrison (Born: Falkirk, 29 October 1976. Died: 25 September 2018.) Graeme Morrison was a central defender who spent five years on the books of Celtic in the 1990s, where he captained the reserve team and also gained experience in a loan spell with League of Ireland club Dundalk. He spent the summer of 1999 in Finland playing for TPV Tampere then returned to Scotland to play for Morton and Stirling Albion. He later became involved in coaching including a spell with Sauchie Juniors. His early death was due to pancreatic cancer.

Gordon Morritt (Born: Rotherham, 8 February 1942. Died: York, November 2018.) Gordon Morritt was a goalkeeper who joined Rotherham United from local football in the summer of 1961 but although he made his first-team debut within weeks of signing he was rarely a first choice. He was also a useful centre-forward and in October 1964 made an outfield appearance in a League Cup tie at Swansea Town; he also played (and scored) regularly as a forward with the club's reserve team. After a spell in South Africa with Durban City he returned to continue his career with spells at Doncaster Rovers, Northampton Town, York City, Rochdale and Darlington, taking his total of senior appearances to exactly 300.

Cliff Myers (Born: Southwark, 23 September 1946. Died: 8 February 2019.) Cliff Myers was a versatile forward who was on the books of both Charlton Athletic and Brentford as a youngster without establishing himself as a first-team regular. In January 1968 he signed for Southern League club Yeovil Town where he became a key player in the team that won the league title in 1970–71. In November 1972 he had the satisfaction of scoring the goal that knocked Brentford out of the FA Cup and the following summer he returned to the Football League, signing for Torquay United. He went on to make 94 League and Cup appearances before eventually returning to non-league football.

Kit Napier (Born: Dunblane, 26 September 1943. Died: Durban, South Africa, 31 March 2019.) Kit Napier was a tall, slim striker best known for the six years he spent with Brighton & Hove Albion (1966–1972) when his goals helped the team win promotion to Division Two in 1971–72. His final tally of 99 goals for the Seagulls is the third highest in the club's history. His career had begun with spells at Blackpool and Preston North End with little success. It was only when he dropped down the divisions to play for Workington that he began to blossom. He moved on to Newcastle United, but had few chances at St James' Park, and then Brighton before concluding his career at Blackburn Rovers. He later emigrated to South Africa where he played for Durban United.

Gordon Neate (Born: Reading, 14 March 1941. Died: Reading, 9 May 2019.) Gordon Neate joined Reading on amateur forms as a 15-year-old, stepping up to the professional ranks at the age of 17. A full-back, although never a regular first-team player, he went on to make over 100 first-team appearances for the Royals before injuries brought on his retirement. He was subsequently appointed groundsman and he stayed in post until retiring in 2009, having given the club 53 years' service.

Billy Neville (Born: Cork, 15 May 1935. Died: 29 September 2018.) Centre-forward Billy Neville signed for West Ham United from Limerick junior club Wembley Rovers in November 1956, and after progressing through the club's junior and reserve teams he went on to make three first team appearances, all in September 1957. The following month he was capped for the Republic of Ireland B team, scoring in the 1-1 draw with Romania at Dalymount Park. He was retained for the 1958–59 season but then contracted tuberculosis which ended his playing career at the age of 22.

Ron Newman (Born: Fareham, 19 January 1934. Died: Tampa, Florida, USA, 27 August 2018.) Ron Newman enjoyed two distinct careers in the game, firstly as a player in the Football League and then as a player and coach in the United States. A winger with Portsmouth in the 1950s, he had to wait until the 1959–60 season to establish himself in the side and then spent three seasons as a first-team regular. Unsuccessful spells with Leyton Orient and Crystal Palace followed before he signed for Gillingham where he was a member of the team that won the Division Three title in 1963–64. In the United States he played for Atlanta Chiefs and Dallas Tornado then successfully turned to coaching, notably with Dallas Tornado (NASL champions in 1971) and San Diego Sockers with whom he won eight Major Indoor Soccer League titles between 1982 and 1992. He was inducted into the US National Soccer Hall of Fame in 1992.

Graham Newton (Born: Bilston, 22 December 1942. Died: February 2019.) Graham Newton was a wing-half or inside-forward who was on the books of both Wolverhampton Wanderers and Blackpool as a youngster without making a senior appearance. In February 1962 he signed for Walsall where he played in 34 League and Cup games, later gaining further experience with both Coventry City and Bournemouth. He did well, playing for Atlanta Chiefs over a four-year period (1967–1970) and was a member of their team that won the NASL championship in 1968. His Football League career ended with a brief spell at Port Vale.

Reece Nicholson (Born: Bircotes, Nottinghamshire, 4 April 1936. Died: 22 March 2019.) Reece Nicholson was a skilful inside-forward who joined Doncaster Rovers from Harworth Colliery Institute at the start of the 1953–54 season. Although mostly a reserve during five years at Belle Vue, he made 30 first-team appearances during his stay. He subsequently spent a season with Cambridge City before enjoying a lengthy career in Midland League football.

Flemming Nielsen (Born: Copenhagen, 24 February 1934. Died: 16 November 2018.) Flemming Nielsen was a tall, skilful midfield player who developed in domestic football in Denmark with B93 and AB, also gaining international honours and a silver medal at the 1960 Olympic Games. In 1961 he moved to play in Serie A with Atalanta where he played for the Italian League representative team before eventually joining the 'Scandinavian Invasion' at Morton in January 1965. He stayed 18 months at Cappielow, making 36 appearances, before returning to Denmark to play for B93.

Dusan Nikolic (Born: Belgrade, 23 January 1953. Died: Belgrade, 18 December2018.) Dusan Nikolic was a hard-tackling midfield player who made his name with Red Star Belgrade, with whom he also won international honours for Yugoslavia. In October 1980 he signed for Bolton Wanderers and he was a regular in his first season with the club but added just one more appearance the following season and in January 1982 he returned to Yugoslavia, signing for Teteks Tetevo.

George O'Hara (Born: 1933. Died: Glasgow, 7 September 2018.) George O'Hara was an inside-left who joined Dundee from Shettleston Juniors in August 1955. He went on to make over 70 appearances during his stay but lost his place in the side and chose to move south, signing for Southend United. The move was not a success and within a month he was back in Scotland with Queen of the South where he made a number of appearances before leaving the senior game in the summer of 1960.

Ian Oliver (Died: 7 February 2019.) Ian Oliver made his senior debut for Berwick Rangers as a 17-year-old and went on to serve the club for over 50 years as player, coach, physio, groundsman and caretaker manager. A centre-forward, he played in the Chirnside United team that lost out to Third Lanark in the first round of the Scottish Cup in January 1958 and soon afterwards he was signed by Berwick. However, his stay at Shielfield was a brief one and he made just five appearances before returning to Chirnside for the start of the 1958–59 campaign.

Lindsay Parsons (Born: Bristol, 20 March 1946. Died: 12 April 2019.) Defender Lindsay Parsons joined Bristol Rovers as an apprentice on leaving school, graduating to a professional contract in April 1964. It was not until the 1970–71 season that he fully established himself in the line-up and between September 1970 and March 1974 he went on a run of 199 consecutive League and Cup appearances. He was a member of the team that won the Watney Cup in 1972–73 and the following season he was a near ever-present as Rovers clinched promotion from Division Three. He ended his career at Torquay United before continuing in non-league football for several seasons. He was later manager of Cheltenham Town (May 1992 to 1995).

Ron Peplow (Born: Willesden, 4 May 1935. Died: 15 March 2019.) Ron Peplow was a versatile player who developed with Rugby Juniors RC of North Kensington and then with Southall as an amateur before stepping up to the senior ranks with Brentford in August 1955. He spent six years as a professional at Griffin Park and although never a first choice in the side he made 66 first-team appearances. Later he played for Folkestone Town and Ashford Town.

Gordon Phillips (Born: Uxbridge, 17 November 1936. Died: 3 September 2018.) Goalkeeper Gordon Phillips played in Hayes' first team as a 16 year-old and two weeks after signing for Brentford he made his first-team debut in an FA Cup tie against Margate the day before his 17th birthday. He went on to make over 200 first-team appearances for the Bees and although not always a regular in the side, he was ever-present in the 1971–72 season when they won promotion from the old Fourth Division.

Justin Phillips (Born: Derby, 17 December 1971. Died: Duffield, Derbyshire, 12 June 2018.) Justin Phillips was a tall central defender who represented England at Schools and Youth international levels. He joined Derby County as a trainee before becoming a professional in July 1990 but spent much of his four years at the Baseball Ground sidelined by injury. He made three first-team appearances, all towards the end of the 1990–91 season, and later spent time on loan with Cork City during 1993–94.

Fred Pickering (Born: Blackburn, 19 January 1941. Died: 9 February 2019.) Fred Pickering joined Blackburn Rovers from school as a full-back and went on to captain the Rovers team that won the FA Youth Cup in 1959–60. It was not until early in 1961 that he switched to playing as a centre-forward and he was a revelation in his new role, scoring two in his first appearance against Manchester City. His performances at Ewood Park drew admirers from rival clubs and in March 1964 he was sold to Everton for a substantial fee. He scored a hat-trick on his debut for the Toffees and two months later scored a hat-trick on his England debut against the USA (the last England player to achieve this feat). He won a further two caps, scoring two more goals, for the national side. He led the Everton scoring charts in both 1964–65 and 1965–66 but was injured in the closing stages of the latter campaign, causing him to miss out on a place in the Cup final team. He later enjoyed some success with both Birmingham City (a place in the FA Cup semi-final in 1967–68) and Blackpool (promotion to the top flight in 1969–70) before ending his career back at Ewood Park.

John Pickup (Born: Stoke-on-Trent, 6 September 1929. Died: Endon, Staffordshire, 19 July 2018.) Inside-left John Pickup was on Stoke City's books from September 1946 before undertaking his National Service with the RAF. In five years on the club's books he featured regularly for the reserve and junior teams, but only made one first-team appearance, in the home game with Huddersfield Town in November 1949. He later moved on to play for Stafford Rangers.

Darren Pitcher (Born: Stepney, 12 October 1969. Died: November 2018.) Darren Pitcher won England Youth international honours and was a member of the Charlton Athletic team that lost out to Coventry in the final of the 1986–87 FA Youth Cup. He signed a professional contract with the Addicks in January 1988 and between 1990 and 1994 he was firmly established in the side as a defensive midfield player, making over 200 appearances for the club. In July 1994 he moved on to Crystal Palace where his career continued to progress before he suffered a serious knee injury in August 1996.

Ralph Prouton (Born: Southampton, 1 March 1926. Died: Bath, 12 September 2018.) Although better known as a wicketkeeper batsman who made 52 appearances for Hampshire, Ralph Prouton also enjoyed a brief career as a soccer player. He had three years at Arsenal without breaking into the first team then spent the 1952–53 season with Swindon Town, for whom he made 16 appearances at left-half. Later he had spells with Tonbridge and Bath City.

Kevin Randall (Born: Ashton-under-Lyne, 20 August 1945. Died: 28 March 2019.) Kevin Randall was one of the best lower division strikers in the 1960s and '70s. He had been a professional at Bury in 1965–66 but received few opportunities there and it was only after he moved on to Chesterfield in the summer of 1966 that his career began to blossom. He recorded a double-figure goals tally in each of six seasons at Saltergate and he was a member of the team that won the Division Four title in 1969–70. His total of 96 League goals has been bettered by only two other players in the club's history. He moved on to Notts County and then Mansfield Town, assisting both to promotion, but by the time he had joined York City in October 1978 injuries had begun to catch up on him and he became less prolific. After retirement he continued to work in the game including a spell as Chesterfield manager (June 1987 to October 1988). At the time of his death he was a member of Burnley's scouting staff.

Hugh Reid (Died: Dundee, 25 September 2018.) Hugh Reid was a right-back who spent his early career with Lochee United Juveniles and Carnoustie Panmure. He was signed by Dundee in October 1955 and in a 12-year spell at Dens Park made a total of 146 appearances, scoring a solitary goal. Later he had a spell with Highland League club Keith.

John Reid (Born: Edinburgh, 23 July 1935. Died: 2019.) John Reid was an outside-right who signed for Airdrieonians from Tranent Juniors in August 1954. In his first season at Broomfield he helped the club win the Scottish B Division title and reach the semi-finals of both the League Cup and the Scottish Cup. However, National Service then intervened to disrupt his career. Stationed at RAF Uxbridge he was allowed to play for Watford by his parent club and in his only appearance, on Christmas Day 1956, he scored in a 2-1 win over Ipswich Town. He returned briefly to Scotland then spent an unproductive season at Norwich City before concluding his career in senior football at Barrow.

Jose Antonio Reyes (Born: Utrera, Spain, 1 September 1983. Died: Utrera, Spain, 1 June 2019.) Jose Antonio Reyes was a pacy and skilful left-sided attacking player who developed with Sevilla before joining Arsenal in the January 2004 transfer window. In his first term at Highbury he contributed to the club's unbeaten Premier League-winning season and the following season he was a member of the side that won the FA Cup. In 2005–06 he was a substitute in the team that lost to Barcelona in the Champions League final. He spent 2006–07 on a season-long loan deal with Real Madrid and then continued to play with a number of teams in La Liga including Atletico Madrid and Sevilla. Most recently he was playing for Extremadura in the Segunda Division. He won 21 full caps for Spain. His death was as a result of a road traffic accident.

John Richmond (Born: Derby, 17 September 1938. Died: August 2018.) Half-back John Richmond captained the Derby Boys team and progressed from local club Derby Corinthians to sign for Derby County in January 1956. He made his senior debut against Huddersfield Town in April 1958, marking a young Denis Law, but in just over seven seasons at the Baseball Ground he mostly featured in the Central League team. In recent years he was treasurer of Derby County Former Players Association.

Gordon Riddick (Born: Langleybury, Hertfordshire, 6 November 1943. Died: 24 August 2018.) Gordon Riddick was a versatile player who made over 400 senior appearances in a career that spanned the period 1961 to 1977. He played more than 100 games for each of Luton Town, Gillingham and Brentford and also spent time with Charlton Athletic, Orient and Northampton. He scored Orient's 3,000th Football League goal at Middlesbrough in March 1971 while in the closing stages of his career he captained Brentford.

Jim Riddle (Born: Arbroath, 27 March 1946. Died, Dundee, 8 May 2019.) Defender Jim Riddle was a product of the Arbroath Lads' Club and Carnoustie Panmure before stepping up to the seniors with Arbroath in the summer of 1963. He captained the Arbroath side that won the Combined Reserve League Autumn Series title in 1963–64 and after spending part of the 1966–67 season on loan to Brechin City he returned to Gayfield, going on to make 72 first-team appearances.

John Ritchie (Born, Auchterderran, Fife, 12 June 1947. Died: 1 June 2018.) Goalkeeper John Ritchie joined Cowdenbeath in June 1964 and made over 100 appearances in the following three seasons. However, he is best known for his association with Brechin City for whom he played almost 350 first-team games in two separate spells, also serving as manager from January 1987 to May 1993, leading them to the Second Division championship in 1989–90 and a further promotion from the Second Division in 1992–93. In between his two spells as a player at Glebe Park he spent time with Bradford City and Dundee United. At the time of his death he was goalkeeping coach at Arbroath.

Dennis Roach (Born: April, 1940. Died: Mudeford, Dorset, 16 May 2019.) Dennis Roach played Southern League football in the 1960s and '70s for Barnet, Bedford Town and Hillingdon Borough but later became much better known as one of the most powerful football agents in the game. He represented players such as Johan Cruyff, Paul Gascoigne, Glenn Hoddle and Trevor Francis through his company PRO International and was at one time president of the FIFA-recognised International Association of Football Agents.

Johnny Robinson (Born, Chorley, 18 April 1936. Died: June 2019.) Johnny Robinson was an apprentice electrician at Leyland Motors where he was playing for the works team when he signed for Bury in September 1954. A winger, he went on to make 126 first-team appearances for the Shakers, mostly in the old Second Division. He later had a brief trial with Oldham Athletic (July to September 1961) before leaving senior football.

Ian Ross (Born: Glasgow, 26 January 1947. Died: February 2019.) Ian Ross was a versatile defender who spent over six years with Liverpool after signing as a 17-year-old but was mostly a mainstay of the club's reserve team. In February 1972 he was sold to Aston Villa, and after helping them win promotion from the Third Division in his first season he went on to captain the team that won the Football League Cup and returned to the top flight in 1974–75. After leaving Villa Park he had two-and-a-half seasons of regular first-team football with Peterborough United before moving into coaching. He was manager of Valur, KR Reykjavik and Keflavik in Iceland as well as Huddersfield Town (March 1992 to July 1993) and Berwick Rangers (from March 1996).

Ray Russell (Born: Walsall, 9 March 1930. Died: 2018.) Ray Russell was an inside-left who was on the books of West Bromwich Albion as a youngster before making his name as a goalscorer in Birmingham League football with Kidderminster Harriers and Burton Albion. He signed for Shrewsbury Town in May 1954 and scored on his debut at Brentford soon afterwards. He went on to net 61 goals from 177 appearances for the Shrews, enjoying his best season in 1958–59 when he hit 27 as the team won promotion from Division Four.

Nigel Suddington (Born: Sunderland, 9 December 1965. Died: 24 January 2019.) Nigel Suddington was a central defender who developed in non-league football in the North East before signing for Doncaster Rovers shortly after the start of the 1984–85 season. He made a number of first team appearances during his time at Belle Vue, then returned to the North East where he signed for Sunderland after a trial period. He enjoyed the best seasons of his career in a three-year spell at Carlisle United where he was club captain and made over 100 first-team appearances. His senior career ended after he was diagnosed with MF at the age of 25 although he later turned out for Gateshead and Nissan of the Wearside League.

Emiliano Sala (Born: Crulu, Santa Fe, Argentina, 31 October 1990. Died: English Channel, 21 January 2019.) Emiliano Sala developed in youth football in Argentina prior to moving to France to sign for Bordeaux. After maturing in a series of loan spells he joined Nantes in July 2015 where his goalscoring exploits earned him a move to Cardiff City in the January 2019 transfer window. Tragically he was killed in an air accident before he was able to make his debut for the Bluebirds.

Frank Sandeman (Born: Dundee, 28 August 1936. Died: Newport-on-Tay, 23 November 2018.) Frank Sandeman was a wing-half who developed in Junior football with Dundee St Joseph's before signing for Montrose in December 1956. After making over 200 appearances he moved on to East Stirlingshire, where he was a member of the team that won promotion to the top flight in 1962–63. After brief spells with Heart of Midlothian and Arbroath he concluded his career at Brechin City, signing as a player in October 1966 before becoming player-manager (March 1969 to January 1971).

Geoff Scott (Born: Birmingham, 31 October 1956. Died: October 2018.) Geoff Scott was on the books of Aston Villa as a youngster but drifted into non-league football before his career was revived by a move to Stoke City in April 1977. He was a near-ever present in the Potters' team that won promotion to the top flight in 1977–78 and subsequently moved on to play for Leicester City, Charlton Athletic, Middlesbrough, Northampton Town and Cambridge United before a serious knee injury ended his career. He was later secretary of the Stoke City Old Boys Association.

Walter Selway (Born: Dundee, 1927. Died: Alford, Aberdeenshire, 14 July 2018.) Centre-forward Walter Selway developed in Junior football with Dundee Osborne and Alyth United before joining the senior ranks with Brechin City towards the end of the 1953–54 season. He enjoyed an excellent scoring record in three seasons at Glebe Park and a further two at Montrose finishing with a career tally of 75 goals from 161 League and Cup appearances before leaving senior football.

Jimmy Shanks (Died: 13 March 2019.) Jimmy Shanks was a defender who was playing reserve-team football for Ardrieonians while still at school. He went on to make over 250 appearances for the club and was a member of the team that won the Scottish League Division B and reached the semi-finals of both the Scottish Cup and Scottish League Cup in 1954–55. In September 1963 he transferred to Stranraer where he added a further century of appearances before leaving senior football. Jim worked as a school teacher and served as Scottish Schools FA President from 1988 to 1990.

Ronnie Sheed (Born: Provan, Glasgow, 8 May 1947. Died: 16 June 2018.) Ronnie Sheed was a busy midfield player who signed for Kilmarnock from East Kilbride Thistle in November 1969. His early career was hampered after he suffered a broken leg playing against Motherwell in the opening weeks of the 1970–71 season but he fought his way back to fitness and went on to play more than 150 games for Killie before leaving in the summer of 1977. He later had a spell with Partick Thistle before switching to amateur football.

John Shepherd (Born: Kensington, 29 May 1932. Died: 11 June 2018.) John Shepherd was playing in the Kensington & District Sunday League for Kensal House when he signed amateur forms for Millwall in April 1951. He contracted polio shortly afterwards but made a full recovery and went on to make a sensational start to his Football League career. He scored four goals on his debut against Leyton Orient in October 1952 and netted hat-tricks on four occasions in his first 12 appearances. His Millwall tally was 78 goals from 196 games and he later went on to assist Brighton & Hove Albion and Gillingham before switching to Southern League football with Ashford Town.

Peter Skipper (Born: Hull, 11 April 1958. Died: 23 April 2019.) Peter Skipper was a powerful central defender best known for his two spells with Hull City. A local boy who made a few appearances as a youngster for the Tigers he moved to Darlington for two seasons before returning to Boothferry Park in the summer of 1982. Ever present in League matches in his first three seasons back, he helped the club to promotions in both 1982–83 and 1984–85. When the Tigers' regular keeper was injured en route to the Full Members Cup match at Southampton in November 1986 he played the whole match in goal. Further spells with Oldham Athletic and Walsall followed before he wound down his career on non-contract terms with Wrexham and Wigan Athletic.

Alan Skirton (Born: Bath, 23 January 1939. Died: May 2019.) Alan Skirton was a winger who excelled with Southern League club Bath City as a teenager, earning him a move to Arsenal. He missed the whole of the 1959–60 season through injury but once fit again he began to establish himself in the first team at Highbury. In seven seasons with the Gunners he made over 150 first-team appearances before moving on to Blackpool, where he was leading scorer in the 1967–68 season. After concluding his senior career with spells at Bristol City and Torquay United he spent 10 years as commercial manager at Bath City and a further 21 years in a similar role at Yeovil Town.

Bill Slater OBE, CBE (Born: Clitheroe, 29 April 1927. Died: 18 December 2018.) Bill Slater played as an amateur for both Blackpool and Brentford in the years after the war, turning out for Blackpool in the 1951 FA Cup final, the last amateur to appear in a Cup final. He won 20 caps for England Amateurs and also appeared for the Great Britain Olympic team before becoming a part-time professional with Wolverhampton Wanderers. He went on to make over 300 appearances at Molineux where he played in three Football League championship-winning teams and was an FA Cup winner in 1960. He won 20 full caps for England and was the Football Writers Association's Footballer of the Year in 1960 (the only part-time player to win the award).

Alan Smith (Born: Newcastle, 15 October 1921. Died: 27 May 2019.) Alan Smith was a winger who signed for Arsenal in May 1946 after being demobbed from the Army. He made three appearances for the Gunners in a six-month spell, moving on to Brentford, then also members of the First Division, at the end of 1946. He stayed in senior football until the end of the 1949–50 season but was principally a reserve both at Griffin Park and with Leyton Orient before moving into the Southern League with Tonbridge.

Billy Smith (Born: Arbroath, 1936. Died: 4 November 2018.) Centre-half Billy Smith signed for Rangers shortly after the start of the 1953–54 season but his only first-team experience at Ibrox came with a couple of appearances at the end of the 1957–58 season. He fared better in a three-year spell with Dundee but it was only when he dropped down to play for Forfar Athletic that he played regular first-team football, making 86 appearances during his time at Station Park.

Ken Smith (Born: Consett, Co. Durham, 7 December 1927. Died: 6 December 2018.) Ken Smith was an inside forward who featured in Scottish Junior football for Montrose Roselea while stationed at RAF Montrose on National Service, helping them to win the Angus Junior League in 1947–48. On demobilisation he played briefly for Annfield Plain before signing for Blackpool in April 1949. However, the nearest he came to first-team football for the Seasiders was being selected as a travelling reserve and in August 1952 he moved on to Gateshead. He enjoyed seven seasons of regular first-team football at Redheugh Park, scoring 78 goals from 278 League and Cup appearances before dropping into non-league football with Ashington.

Tommy Smith MBE (Born: Liverpool, 5 April 1948. Died: Waterloo, Crosby, 12 April 2019.) Tommy Smith joined the groundstaff at Liverpool on leaving school, signing a professional contract on reaching the age of 17. He developed into a fearsome central defender who was a consistent performer throughout his career. He made over 600 appearances for the Reds in a career that spanned the period from 1962 to 1978. One of the stars of Bill Shankly's team, he was a member of four Football League title-winning sides and was twice an FA Cup winner. He also gained UEFA Cup winners' medals in 1973 and 1976 and a European Cup winners' medal in 1977. After 16 years at Anfield he concluded his career with a season at Swansea City, helping the team win promotion from Division Three in 1978–79. He won a solitary cap for England, playing against Wales in May 1971.

John Smout (Born: Newtown, 30 October 1941. Died: Newtown, 18 February 2019.) Goalkeeper John Smout was playing for his local team Newtown in the Mid Wales League when signed by Crystal Palace in August 1965. He was mostly third choice in his season at Crystal Palace and on the only occasion he featured in the first team he was carried off with an injury. He then spent two seasons with Exeter City, where he was an ever-present in 1967–68 before returning to play for Newtown again.

Vichai Srivaddhanaprabha (Born: Bangkok, 5 June 1958. Died: Leicester, 27 October 2018.) Vichai Srivaddhanaprabha was a Thai businessman who became a billionaire through his King Power company. He was the lead figure in the Asia Football Investments consortium which bought the then Championship club Leicester City in August 2010. Under his ownership the club won promotion to the top flight and in 2015–16 became Premier League champions. He also owned the VR Polo Club in Bangkok and Belgian second division football team OH Leuven. His death was as a result of a helicopter crash which occurred as he was leaving the King Power Stadium following Leicester's home game against West Ham United.

John Steeples (Born: Doncaster, 28 April 1959. Died: March 2019.) John Steeples was a wide attacking player who spent three seasons with Grimsby Town in the early 1980s. He was mostly a reserve during his time at Blundell Park, although he was a member of the team that defeated Wimbledon 3–2 to win the first ever Football League Group Cup final in April 1982. He later played for Scarborough and Grantham.

Dave Stewart (Born: Glasgow, 11 March 1947. Died: 13 November 2018.) Goalkeeper David Stewart was a Scottish Junior Cup winner with Kilsyth Rangers in 1967 and signed for Ayr United shortly afterwards. A near ever-present in the team that won promotion from the Second Division in 1968–69 he made over 250 appearances for Ayr before being sold to Leeds United in October 1973. He spent the next six seasons at Elland Road providing back up to David Harvey although he played in the 1975 European Cup final when Leeds lost to Bayern Munich in Paris. Later he had 18 months as a reserve at West Bromwich Albion and ended his senior career with Swansea City where he played every game of the 1981–82 season as the Swans clinched promotion to the First Division. He won a single cap for Scotland, appearing against East Germany in September 1977.

Roger Sugden (Born: Stanningley, West Yorkshire, 15 October 1945. Died: Edinburgh, 6 July 2018.) Roger Sugden played his early football with Musselburgh Windsor and Haddington Athletic before signing for Cowdenbeath in August 1963. A pacy winger, he went on to make over 200 senior appearances during his time at Central Park and was a member of the team that won promotion from the Second Division in 1969–70. Shortly afterwards injury effectively ended his senior career and he returned to the Juniors with Dalkeith Thistle.

John Sutherland (Born: Cork, 10 February 1932. Died: Nantwich, 6 February 2019.) Full-back John Sutherland won an FA of Ireland Minor Cup winners' medal with Cork junior club Evergreen in 1948 and had a trial with Southampton before signing up for Everton in May 1950. He had to wait six years for his first-team debut at Goodison and after making half-a-dozen appearances he joined Chesterfield in the 1957 close season. He fared much better in lower division football and was an ever-present at Saltergate in 1957–58 before spending two seasons with Crewe Alexandra where he took his total of senior appearances beyond the 100-mark before a serious knee injury led to his retirement.

Alan Swan (Born: 2 June 1950. Died: Johannesburg, South Africa, 24 January 2019.) Alan Swan was a left-back who joined Clyde from Shettleston Juniors in December 1969 and went on to make over 150 first-team appearances during his stay at Shawfield. A highlight came in the 1972–73 season when he was a member of the team that won the Second Division title. At the end of the 1974–75 season he emigrated to South Africa where he played for the Johannesburg-based club Highlands Park for several seasons.

Alex Tait was a lively striker with an eye for goal who played with Newcastle United's nursery team while still at school. On leaving education he signed a professional contract for the club but never really established himself in the side during an eight-year spell at St James' Park, best remembered for his hat-trick in a 6–2 win over Sunderland in December 1956. He moved on to Bristol City in the summer of 1960 where he enjoyed a good scoring record (133 appearances, 44 goals). After a season at Doncaster Rovers he became player-manager of Burton Albion in the 1965 close season.

Mike Thalassitis (Born: Edmonton, 19 January 1993. Died: Essex, 15 March 2019.) Michael Thalassitis was a striker who developed in the youth set-up at Stevenage and went on to make a total of seven appearances, all from the substitutes' bench, scoring in the 4–1 League Cup defeat to Southampton in August 2012. He subsequently played for a number of teams, mostly at Conference South level before leaving the game. He represented Cyprus at U19 and U21 levels. He was better known as a reality television star who appeared in such programmes as Love Island and Celebs Go Dating.

Peter Thompson (Born: Carlisle, 27 November 1942. Died: Ashford, Kent, 30 December 2018.) Peter Thompson signed for Preston North End at the age of 17 and initially featured in the first team at centre-forward before switching to playing on the left wing where his skills were better used. His career really took off when he moved to Liverpool in the summer of 1963 and he went on to become one of the key players in Bill Shankly's legendary side of that era. A member of the team that won the Football League title in 1963–64 and 1965–66, he was an FA Cup winner in 1965 and the following year gained a European Cup Winners' Cup runners-up medal. In total he made over 300 League and Cup appearances for the Anfield club before injuries took their toll and he moved on to conclude his career with Bolton Wanderers. He won 16 full caps for England between 1964 and 1970 and also gained representative honours for England U23s and the Football League.

Alan Thomson (Born: Clarkston, Glasgow, 6 September 1946. Died: Birmingham, 22 July 2018.) Alan Thomson was a Scotland Schools' international who was on the books of Rangers as a youngster without making the first team. After moving on to Hamilton Academical in August 1966 he established himself as a regular at centre-forward and finished as leading scorer in two of his three seasons with the club. He spent the 1969–70 season with Albion Rovers before work sent him to live abroad.

Dennis Thrower (Born: Ipswich, 1 August 1938. Died: Ipswich, 5 August 2018.) Dennis Thrower was a wing half who was just 18 when he made his senior debut for Ipswich Town, but after another appearance shortly afterwards it was another six years before he returned to the first-team line-up. In total he made 31 appearances for the team before moving on to sign for Bury Town in 1965.

Arthur Turner (Born: Poplar, 22 January 1921. Died: Sevenoaks, 25 January 2019.) Arthur Turner signed for Charlton Athletic on amateur terms during the Second World War and made over 50 appearances for them, finishing as top scorer in both 1944–45 and 1945–46. He became the first amateur player to appear in an FA Cup final at Wembley when he lined up for the Addicks in the 1946 final. He later signed for Colchester United, scoring 74 goals in 94 Southern League appearances and then played for them in Division Three South, scoring their first-ever Football League goal in a 1–1 draw at Swindon Town in August 1950.

Johnny Valentine (Born: 13 March 1930. Died: Torres Motav, 17 February 2019.) Centre-half Johnny Valentine developed with Buckie Thistle and had trials with Hibernian and Aberdeen before signing for Queen's Park in February 1953. He enjoyed a useful amateur career, making over 100 appearances for the Hampden club and winning 10 caps for Scotland Amateurs before moving on to Rangers where he was mostly a reserve. Later he concluded his career with two seasons at St Johnstone, contributing to their success in winning the Second Division title in 1959–60.

Peter Vine (Born: Abingdon, 11 December 1940. Died: 30 April 2018.) Peter Vine was an inside-forward who signed amateur forms for Southampton in April 1956, turning professional in December 1957. A member of the Saints team that reached the semi final of the FA Youth Cup in 1956–57 and an England Youth international, he made a solitary senior appearance, featuring at inside-right at Bury in March 1959.

Harry Walden (Born: Walgrave, Northamptonshire, 22 December 1940. Died: 23 September 2018.) Harry Walden was a pacy winger whose goals helped Kettering Town to reach the FA Cup second round in 1960–61, earning him a move to Luton Town in January 1961. He went straight into the Hatters' line-up but then suffered an injury and it was not until the 1961–62 season that he featured regularly in the side. In June 1964 he moved on to Northampton Town, helping the Cobblers win promotion to the top flight in his first season. He stayed until the club descended into the Third Division then returned to Kettering where he continued to play until 1973.

Jim Walker (Died: 2019.) Jim Walker developed with Bonnybridge Weinstood Juveniles and Clydebank Juniors before signing for Rangers in February 1954. Although restricted by National Service he played occasional friendly games during his time at Ibrox and two Scottish League games in December 1956. He was only a reserve in a brief spell with Southend United and returned to Scotland to establish himself firstly with St Johnstone from November 1958 and then East Fife (1962–1967). He made over 200 appearances during his time at Bayview before ending his senior career with Forfar Athletic.

Johnny Walker (Born: Glasgow, 17 December 1926. Died: Reading, 23 January 2019.) Inside-forward Johnny Walker was one of the stars of the Campsie Black Watch team that reached the final of the Scottish Secondary Juvenile Cup in 1947 and he signed professional forms for Wolves immediately after the game. He never quite managed to establish himself in the side at Molineux but later enjoyed a very successful career out of the top flight with both Southampton (1952–1957) and Reading (1957–1965). His final total of 542 senior appearances is testament to his reliability while during his time at Elm Park he captained the side.

Don Wallace (Born: 22 November 1932. Died: 4 December 2018.) Goalkeeper Don Wallace excelled in Junior football with Bonnybridge Juniors before stepping up to the seniors with Alloa Athletic early in 1957. In a short senior career he made 13 first-team appearances before moving on.

Duncan Welbourne (Born: Scunthorpe, 28 July 1940. Died: 14 January 2019.) Duncan Welbourne was a robust defender who developed in a six-year spell with Grimsby Town (1957–1963), making over 100 first-team appearances for the Mariners. However, he is best known for his performances for Watford where he was a model of consistency, playing over 450 games including a consecutive run of 280 Football League games. Highlights of his time at Vicarage Road included being ever-present in the team that won Division Three in 1968–69 and also assisting the team to a place in the FA Cup semi-final the following season. He moved on to Southport in July 1974 where he became player-coach.

Chris Weller (Born: Reading, 25 December 1939. Died: Wimborne, 4 June 2018.) Inside-forward Chris Weller had been an amateur with Reading before joining Bournemouth on a professional contract in September 1959. After waiting 12 months for his senior debut he burst on the scene with seven goals in his first 13 appearances. With the exception of a six-month spell at Bristol Rovers, he remained at Dean Court until the end of the 1966–67 season, playing over 100 first-team games. He later had a lengthy spell with Southern League club Yeovil Town, helping them win the title and reach the FA Cup third round in 1970–71.

Bob Whitehead (Born: Ashington, 22 September 1936. Died: March 2019.) Right-back Bob Whitehead signed for Newcastle United as a 17 year-old, but in seven seasons at St James' Park he mostly provided back-up to Dick Keith, making a total of 20 first-team appearances. He spent the 1961–62 campaign with Southern League club Cambridge City before returning to senior football once more with Darlington where he was a regular in the line-up for 18 months.

Danny Williams (Born: Maltby, near Rotherham, 20 November 1924. Died: Newmarket, 3 February 2019.) Danny Williams was one of the all time great figures in the history of Rotherham United. He joined the club as a left-half during the Second World War, making 95 appearances in the emergency competitions before continuing as a part-time professional when peacetime football returned. He was a regular in the Millers' line-up for the best part of 14 seasons and rarely missed a game during the 1950–51 campaign when the Division Three North title was won. He amassed a club record total of 500 first-team appearances and on retirement joined the backroom staff at Millmoor before serving as manager from July 1962 to May 1965. He later had two spells in charge of Swindon Town as well as managing both Sheffield Wednesday and Mansfield Town. His greatest feat as a manager was in the 1968–69 season when he won promotion from the Third Division with Swindon Town as well as the League Cup, defeating Arsenal in extra time in the final.

Gareth Williams (Born: Hendon, 30 October 1941. Died: Las Palmas, Gran Canaria, Spain, 4 June 2018.) Gareth Williams was a powerful wing-half who joined Cardiff City from local football in the closing stages of the 1958–59 season, but it was not until April 1963 that he established himself as a first-team regular at Ninian Park. He went on to become a key member of the side and club captain, featuring in the teams which reached the quarter-final of the European Cup Winners' Cup (1964–65) and semi-final of the League Cup (1965–66). He was surprisingly allowed to leave for Bolton Wanderers in October 1967 and later concluded his senior career with a couple of seasons at Bury.

Graham Williams (Born: Wrexham, 31 December 1936. Died: 25 November 2018.) Graham Williams was an outside-left who was briefly with Bradford City before being sold to Everton in March 1956. He spent three full seasons at Goodison but was mostly a back-up player during his stay. He did better when dropping down to the Second Division with Swansea Town, making 100 appearances and also winning five full caps for Wales. Later he had spells with Wrexham, Wellington Town, Tranmere Rovers (where he was a promotion winner in 1966–67) and Port Vale before leaving senior football.

Joe Williams (Died: Bangor, North Wales, 8 March 2018.) Joe Williams enjoyed his best seasons with Holyhead Town (1960–1970) for whom he was a member of the team that won the Welsh League North title in 1963–64 and the North Wales Coast Challenge Cup in 1966–67. He won three caps for Wales Amateurs and also featured for the North Wales Coast FA in their fixtures against the Scottish Junior FA.

Ernest Womersley (Born: Liversedge, 28 August 1932. Died: Cleckheaton, 15 September 2018.) Ernest Womersley was a winger or inside-forward who signed for Huddersfield Town in September 1949. He mostly featured in the club's Central League and Yorkshire League teams, making two first-team appearances, both in the 1950–51 season. He stayed at Leeds Road until the summer of 1957 and then had a season with Bradford City without breaking into the side before joining Stocksbridge Works.

Roy Woolcott (Born: Leyton, 29 July 1946. Died: Waltham Abbey, 16 December 2019.) Roy Woolcott was a tall centre-forward who progressed from amateur football with Eton Manor to a professional contract with Tottenham Hotspur during the 1967–68 season. However, during a five-year stay at White Hart Lane he made just a single appearance for Spurs, lining up at Ipswich Town in December 1969. He had a successful loan spell with Gillingham in 1971–72, scoring five goals from 13 appearances, before switching to non league football with Chelmsford City. He helped the Essex club reach the FA Cup third round in 1972–73 but then a back injury restricted his appearances.

Brian Wright (Died: Derry, 15 March 2019.) Brian Wright developed in Irish football firstly with Derry City and Distillery before moving south to play for Shgo Rovers. He was the youngest player to appear in an Irish Cup final when he turned out for Derry City against Glenavon in the 1957 final at the age of 15. He spent most of the 1962–63 season with Port Vale, scoring two goals in 15 first-team outings. He subsequently returned to Ireland and later went on to score Finn Harps' first-ever League of Ireland goal in a 10-2 defeat to Shamrock Rovers in August 1969.

George Yardley (Born: Kirkcaldy, 8 October 1942. Died: Dalgety Bay, Fife, 14 November 2018.) George Yardley initially signed for East Fife as a second-choice goalkeeper but he was also a capable outfield player. He was capped for Scotland Amateurs against Wales in May 1960 as a 'keeper but made most of his appearances at Bayview as a centre-forward with just occasional outings between the sticks. He later played for Forfar Athletic and Montrose and spent time in Australia before returning to look for a club. A one-match trial with Luton Town was followed by a longer spell with Tranmere Rovers where his goalscoring feats helped fire the club to promotion in 1966–67. A serious kidney injury suffered in March 1968 led to a lengthy stay in hospital and it was some time before he was able to play again. He returned to Prenton Park to bring his record for Rovers to 81 goals from 149 appearances.

Jake Young (Died: 8 May 2019.) Jake Young was a defender who signed for Dundee from Junior outfit Carnoustie Panmure shortly after the start of the 1954–55 season. He made little progress at Dens Park but went on to enjoy a useful career as an effective centre-half with both Arbroath and East Fife. During his time at Gayfield he was a near ever-present in the team that won promotion from the Second Division and reached the League Cup quarter-finals in 1958–59. After further spells with St Mirren and Keith he was appointed player-manager of Forfar Athletic in August 1967, successfully turning round the fortunes of the club.

FOOTBALL YEARBOOK 2019–2020

SPECIAL 50TH ANNIVERSARY EDITION 1970–2020

Since its first appearance in 1970, The Football Yearbook has heralded the start of each new season and served as the sport's book of record, faithfully chronicling a half-century of both tradition and evolution.

This commemorative edition celebrates that fifty-year legacy, and undertakes to do what the Yearbook always does – to meticulously record the season just gone and look forward to the season about to start, all within its 1056 pages of pure footballing facts and figures.

'It's been the basis of my work since 1971.
It's the internet between covers' JOHN MOTSON

'The definitive chronicle of changing times for so many who love the sport' IAN HERBERT, DAILY MAIL

'The Yearbook stands for authority and integrity' MARTIN TYLER

'The first reference book you should turn to' DAILY TELEGRAPH
